Special Service To Observe Publication Of Revised Bible

Rev. Floyd Vivian Filson, Th.D., D.D., professor of New Testament literature and history at McCormick Theological seminary, Chicago, will be the guest speaker at the special observance of the publication date of the Revised Standard Version of the Bible September 30.

The program, to which the public is invited and encouraged to come, will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the sanctuary of the First Presbyterian church, Arlington Heights, following an all-church-family dinner. Reservations for dinner are made through the unit leaders of the circles of the Women's association.

DR. FILSON, noted author in the field of New Testament and co-editor of the "Westminster Atlas" will tell something of the fascinating story in connection with the translation of the Revised Standard Version of the Bible into a living language which overcomes obscure, old-fashioned phrases making it more usable to the twentieth century reader.

Leading Bible scholars have been working on the R.S.V. for 14 years. Since the publication of the Revised Standard Version of the New Testament in 1946 readers of the Bible have been waiting this historical day when the complete Bible could be read in clear, understandable, simple language.

Copies of the new Bible will be on display and orders for them will be taken before and after Dr. Filson's address.

The evening program has been planned by the committee of Christian Education of the First Presbyterian church. A filmstrip, "Adventure in Ourtown, The Story of Our Bible" will be shown to junior and junior-high children at 7:30 p.m. This is an interesting story of how the new R.S.V. came into being.

MEMBERS OF THE Committee of Christian Education are Messrs. Lawrence Smith, chairman; Fred Clark, William Johnson, LeRoy Knoeppel, A. James Moore, Wendell Prunty, Charles Tully, Mrs. Harry Pearson, Mrs. William Swanson, and Mrs. John Watkins. Ex-officio members are the Rev. C. Victor Brown and Miss Roberta King.

"The completion of the Revised Standard Version of the Holy Bible marks an epoch in the religious life of the English-speaking peoples comparable to that marked by the issuance of the King James Version in 1611," stated Rev. Brown. "Recognizing the need for a new version, the former International Council of Religious Education, representing 40 major denominations in the U. S. and Canada, authorized a revision and appointed a committee of 32 eminent Bible scholars to study all the past versions as well as all the available manuscripts in order to prepare a revision of the King James and the American Standard Versions that would present the word of God accurately and in good English for twentieth century readers," Rev. Brown continued.

To accomplish this gigantic task, the Bible scholars, with Dr. Luther A. Weigle, dean emeritus of Yale University Divinity school, have been working since 1930, translating from Hebrew, Greek, Aramaic, Latin and English sources and checking and rechecking each other's work. No changes from the older authorized versions have been made without the approval of two-thirds of the committee. The New Testament, being smaller, was completed first and was published in 1946. The Old Testament is scheduled for publication in two volumes, as well as in combination with the New Testament, on September 30. The publishers are Thomas Nelson and Sons, New York.

Cigarettes Blamed For Truck Fire Resulting In $1,000 Damage

Arlington Heights firemen were called out at 11:45 a. m. Wednesday to fight a blaze that had broken out on a westbound truck on Northwest hwy., just west of Chatam pl. The fire, which was confined to the truck's load of radiator covers, was extinguished within a few minutes. Police blame cigarettes.

The vehicle and the cabinets belonged to the Central Radiator Cabinet Co., Chicago. Mats covering the merchandise were destroyed while the covers themselves were bent and scorched. Damage was estimated at $1,000. No one was injured.

Builder Picks Up 80-Year Relic

The boys around Arlington Elevator & Coal are viewing with interest a relic of early days picked up by Walter Heinnemann near the intersection of Vail and Willow, Arlington Hts., where Jake Mauer has building operations.

It is a two-inch drain tile, an obsolete size today, that bears the imprint, Meacham, Lockwood & Co., Brickton, Ill.

The history of Cook County, published in 1884, says that the firm of Meacham, Lockwood Co. was in operation in 1870. Brickton, was the first name of the Park Ridge of today. A brick yard was opened there in 1854 by Penny & Beacham, who made bricks by hand, selling them in the Chicago market for $18 to $25 per thousand in competition with bricks brought from Philadelphia and sold at $50 to $75.

Building Boom In Arlington Continues

During a 13-day period, from September 8 to 19, Fred Hammer, Arlington Heights building commissioner, issued permits for 30 new homes, totaling $430,800.

Other permits issued during the same period for garages and additions to homes totaled $17,224.

From September 2 to 7 four permits for single family homes were issued, totaling $62,000; one permit for a post office, $25,000; and other permits for garages and additions totaling $6,035.

This makes a total of $541,059 in building permits during the first 19 days of September. If this pace keeps up it will probably be a record month for home building in Arlington Heights during 1952.

Button Sale, Matinee To Highlight National Kids' Day Saturday

The observance of National Kids' Day in Arlington Heights will include a Kids' Day button sale and a special matinee.

The entertainment in the form of a three hour show of cartoons and comedies will take place at 1 o'clock Saturday at the Arlington Theatre. Admission is 25 cents.

All funds raised through button sales will stay in the village to be used to sponsor a Little League baseball team and other local youth sports activities.

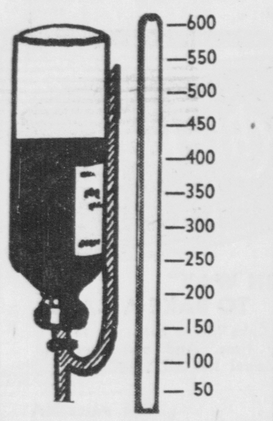

Village Board Questions Statement In Advertisement

Mayor Albert Goedke in reply to a page advertisement in last week's Arlington Heights Herald, that placed the responsibility upon the village for immediate action on downtown parking, has asked this paper to make clear the position of the village board in reference to the suggested widening of Davis and Campbell streets.

He feels that the board can take no action until the plan commission makes a definite recommendation, which it has not yet done. "We expended more than $5,000 for engineer services and naturally," says Goedke, "it would be unreasonable to expect the village to bypass the Plan Commission, under whose request the engineers were hired."

He also says, "The village engineers, nearly four years ago, presented a rough draft of a master plan that included the widening of Campbell and other streets. With the exception of a few owners the businessmen did not then appear interested in the overall development of the business section and the improvement was confined to S. Dunton ave."

BLOOD PLEDGES

The Red Cross is seeking 600 blood donors in Arlington Hts. and Palatine between now and October 27-28. Citizens are urged to make their pledges today and help bring the thermometer to the top.

Seek Pledges For Blood Drive October 27-28

A Red Cross defense blood drive will again be held in Arlington Heights, October 27 and 28, from 2 to 8 p.m., at the field house. The drive will include Palatine residents desiring to donate.

With a goal of 600 pledges, 300 a day, an early start is needed to assure the Red Cross of this quota. Members of the Arlington Heights Woman's club will conduct a telephone campaign to solicit donors. Mrs. A. C. Peters is chairman of the drive and Mrs. John Kent will assist as co-chairman.

Palatine residents will be contacted by Mrs. Milton J. Coey, 243 S. Plum Grove. Pledges may be made by calling Mrs. Coey at Palatine 889.

IF THIS NATION could be sure that there would be no more world-wide wars in the future, that the war in Korea could be brought to a close without being spread into a general conflict more costly in human lives and national wealth than it is now, then the need for blood contributions would be less urgent. But no one in a responsible position in the United States feels he can safely predict there will be no war. The Kremlin could trigger off a war tomorrow as easily as it did in June 1950. As long as there is a possibility of war we must be prepared for it.

Any person in good health between the ages of 18 and 60 may donate blood once every two months, with the total donations not to exceed five times a year. Men between the ages of 18 and 21 (except those in military service) are required to have the written consent of parents, guardians or spouses.

The defense blood drive held in Heights last February went over the top, with 348 pints of blood donated, the original goal being 300. Pledges grossed 478, but rejections and cancellations due to illness reduced the net intake.

Assisting during the drive will be the Arlington Heights Nurses' club, which will serve a pot luck supper to the Red Cross workers one of the two nights. Coffee and a light snack will be available to donors.

Further information may be had by calling Mrs. Peters, CL 3-2000 or Mrs. Kent, CL 3-1386.

'AIR RAID' MONDAY AFTERNOON

Arlington To Take Part In County Test

Arlington Heights and nearly all of Cook county will experience an air raid alert Monday afternoon, starting at 3:45.

The entire county will learn that afternoon the sound of actual air raid warnings. Sirens, horns and whistles will sound a three minute blast, followed by silence for five minutes. The all clear signal will comprise a one minute blast, two minutes of silence, one minute blast, two minutes of silence ending with a third one minute blast, 15 minutes in all.

Joseph A. Downey, Cook County Civil Defense Director by appointment of County Board President William N. Erickson, said that the test has two objectives.

"Obviously, one objective is to afford a rehearsal for the men who will operate the air raid warnings in case of an attack by enemy bombers," he said. "President Erickson is proud of the fact that Cook county was the first large metropolitan area in the country to be completely organized for civil defense, and he is eager to maintain high standards of efficiency.

"The second objective is to determine the extent to which we can cover the county with the sirens we have available. This is where every citizen plays a part.

"It is essential to the success of this project that everyone be prepared to listen for the signals starting at 3:45 p.m. September 29. On that day, we will be back on standard time, daylight saving ending Sunday, Sept. 28.

"If everyone hears the signals, then all is well. The people we want to hear from are those who may be out of range. Thus we can determine what areas are not reached by sirens as now located and we can arrange to expand the coverage."

Ed Guenther will be in charge of the handling of the alert in Arlington Heights.

Engineer's Report To Be Made Available To General Public

Copies of the long range village plan prepared by the engineering firm of Stanton and Rockwell may be ordered by individuals, groups or organizations in Arlington Heights, for future study.

Orders should be placed at the village hall within the next week so reprints can be ordered. Copies will be sold for a nominal cost.

The decision to release copies of the plan was made by the planning commission last week Thursday. The commission will meet the second and fourth Monday nights of each month until they have completed the study of the plans, and prepared a final report for the village board.

The general public is invited to attend. Citizens are urged to take this opportunity to hear the Republican story.

The new group, Northwest Suburban Volunteers for Stevenson, which exists for the sole purpose of promoting the presidential candidacy of Governor Adlai E. Stevenson, elected as its chairman, Donald H. Shaw, Arlington Heights.

"AS FRIENDS and admirers of the governor," Shaw said, "we are banding together to support his candidacy for the presidency. Most of us are independents, many, Republicans, but all of us believe that Stevenson's fine record as our governor makes him the best man to serve us as our next president. As a group, we are interested only in Governor Adlai E. Stevenson."

"We welcome and anticipate the active participation and support of the many other residents of Barrington, Palatine, Arlington Heights and Mt. Prospect who feel as we do," the chairman added. Community Chest Indorsed By 30 Groups

Success for the coming Arlington Heights Community Chest drive is assured by the endorsement that it received at the recent meeting attended by representatives of 37 local civic organizations.

Their approval was the first step toward placing in motion the machinery that will provide the needed workers, and much of the needed support. This momentum will help assure complete, representative community action, embracing all interests and areas.

Neighborhood associations, churches, service clubs, veterans groups, Scout administrations, vocational clubs, and lodges, are behind the drive, as well as overall business organizations and woman's and cultural groups.

Further meetings being held this week will finalize the specific plans and set into motion the participation of the various community interests, the timing of each phase of the drive, and the organization of workers to cover every corner of Arlington Heights in a final climatic push.

Attending the recent meeting of community organizations were:

David E. Wennerstrand, Arlington Heights Lodge 1162; Dorothy Chambers, E. Jesse Weiss, Nurses' club; Ada R. Seales, Roberta Keeley, Newcomers' club; George H. Sode, Presbyterian church; Arthur W. Meyer, Faith Lutheran church; Kenneth R. Gregory, girl scouts; N. F. Hauff, Chamber of Commerce.

Hoban, Walter C. Hanson, Robert Bishop, A. H. Franzen, N. M. Lattof, Lawrence Dahlgren, William Gerbosi, Mrs. George Tuttle, and George Poole.

William Gerbosi is serving as chairman of the campaign, backed up by a number of special committees announced last week.

Palatine Tax Bodies Up In Arms Over Action Of County Assessor

The off-the-record deal made between Palatine Township Assessor Horn and the taxing bodies has been thrown into the same waste basket by the county assessor's office that usually receives the personal property tax bills.

In an effort to have Palatine people come to the aid of the schools and other local taxing bodies by the payment of personal property tax bills, Horn proposed at a mass meeting last May that he would adopt a low schedule of assessments on which taxes would be assessed.

The assessor's office criticised Horn for his action and arbitrarily raised all his figures. In the meantime the various tax boards passed a resolution explaining their need for personal property tax money and asked that the low schedules be allowed to stand.

Their petition appears to have gone into the waste basket, according to the assessment figures that were published last week in the Palatine Enterprise.

Air Raid Rescue Teams On The Way

Arlington Heights has in the making an air raid rescue team of four squads.

Nicholas Lattof, Arlington Hts. OCD chief and Arthur Franzen recently spent a week in the nation's capital where they took a course in OCD administration.

Ed Paulus, a member of the high school faculty spent ten days last month on "Rescue street and Casualty avenue" near Washington where he took a thorough course in rescue work. This week, Curly Rodewald, assistant fire chief is taking the same course. Men come from all parts of the country to take the course, which is limited to 32 men at a time.

Paulus and Rodewald will be ready to train from 20 to 30 local men in the latest and improved methods of rescue work. The only thing that will prevent the organization of rescue teams in Arlington Heights will be the assumption on the part of the general public that "it can't happen here."

Paulus, in commenting on the training he received, said it is a lot different than "story book" instruction. The government has alotted over forty million dollars to the training work, which is as thorough and as effective as that given to the armed forces, except we were taught how to save lives not to kill.

ON A VACANT spot thirty miles from Washington, a business district of buildings including a six story business block, a theater, down to one story homes have been so erected that they give the appearance and are in a condition as having been destroyed by bombs. Masses of steel, cement, brick and timbers have to be moved to reach the "injured."

Problems presented to the rescue classes are their removal of casualties. They may figuratively be held down by heavy timbers, or tons of material which must be moved before they can be reached.

One instructor to each ten men, directed the "rescue" work until the last day when the men themselves were presented with problems that they had to solve without help.

"The training we got there," says Paulus, "may come in handy in everyday life, in case of a fire, auto accident, etc. It is much greater than any given under the OCD during World War II. We all hope that World War III will not arrive. After our proposed rescue squad is formed, Arlington Heights will be prepared for any emergency, war or otherwise."

As their instructor bade good bye to the Paulus group, he said, "I hope you will never have to use what I have taught you."

AN EFFECTIVE organization in addition to manpower should include a three ton truck with equipment to remove casualties from buildings, to care for the injured, to provide independent lights, oxygen tanks, acetylene torch and a multitude of items that must be available in case that disaster should strike our community.

"Arlington Heights can at least provide the manpower," says Paulus. "In that manpower we will be more effective if we have at least two plumbers, an electrician, a carpenter and men acquainted with tools. We cannot afford to make any mistakes when lives are to be saved."

Arlington Heights village board has recognized the importance of a local OCD organization. Msrs. Lattof and Franzen spent a week in Washington at their own expense. Paulus and Rodewald attended the school at the request of the village, which is paying actual expenses.

HAAKE GUEST SPEAKER AT LADIES NIGHT NEXT TUESDAY

"A Challenge to the Chamber of Commerce," will be the topic of Dr. Alfred P. Haake, Ph. D., who will be the guest speaker at the CC Ladies' Night to be held at the Faith Lutheran Church on Tuesday, September 30, at 6:45 p. m.

World Politics Course To Be Offered On Adult Evening Slate

Election year interest in foreign affairs and heightened concern over the Korean stalemate has brought a sharp increase in inquiries about the Arlington Heights World Politics program. Claude E. Wells, director of the adult education project, attributed the increase to an "unusually active concern over the role of the United States in world affairs," in a meeting today with T. C. Seiler of Arlington Heights.

Wells said, "At least 70 groups will meet in 58 different locations when the program starts in late September." Aim of the program is to "develop a capacity for independent and critical judgment in questions of public policy."

The 10-week discussion series is based on selected readings provided registrants by the American Foundation for Political Education. The foundation receives its support from the Fund for Adult Education.

GROUPS ARE OPEN to all adults in the Arlington Heights area. Typical issues to be discussed include the cause of war, nationalism as a factor in international relations, power politics, and the relation between the state and the individual.

Conflicting viewpoints are deliberately brought together in the reading. Authors include James Byrnes, Hitler, Lincoln, Freud, Mussolini, President Truman, John Locke, Tolstoy and Einstein. No formal education background is required to participate.

Co-sponsors of the Chicago area program are the University of Chicago and the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations.

Trained discussion leaders are selected from the community in which the class sessions are to be held. Leading the Wednesday night sessions at Arlington Heights township high school will be Ted C. Seiler and a co-leader to be announced later.

NOW WITH THE Chicago firm of Ocean Accident and Guarantee corp., Seiler formerly taught school in Arlington Heights. He received Bachelor of Science and Master of Arts degrees from Northwestern university. During the war, he served in the army and was in Europe 12 months. He is married and has one child.

"The World Politics Program," Wells said, "does not engage in propaganda. Its only objective is educational."

St. Peter Sunday School To Mark Silver Anniversary

St. Peter Lutheran Sunday school will mark its twenty-fifth anniversary at a special service at 10:45 a.m. Sunday. Rally day will be observed in the same service.

Printed programs will be available and pupils will take part in the divine service. Mrs. Charles Klehm will be given special recognition as she will be observing her twenty-fifth year as a teacher in the Sunday school.

Every pupil enrolled will receive a gold cross as an anniversary remembrance. All former teachers are especially invited to attend the service.

The first session of the Sunday school was held October 16, 1927, though the actual organization date was October 10, 1927. Prior to that date the congregation fostered the work of Christian education solely through the medium of the Christian day school, which had been conducted and supported by the congregation for 66 years at the time the Sunday school was established.

THOSE SERVING as superintendents of the Sunday school were Rev. H. C. Fricke, Edward Bittner, Otto Koehneke, Henry Schroder, and K. L. Busse, the latter still in office.

Nearly 12 years ago a branch Sunday school was organized in the Wilson school on Palatine rd. A fine enrollment makes the work there a good mission agency. St. Peter church is grateful to the school authorities for the free use of the facilities of Wilson school. The present superintendent is John Loock, newly called teacher of the Lutheran school.

"St. Peter Sunday school," said Rev. L. V. Stephan, pastor of the church, "has well served as a stepping stone for the Christian education offered by our parish school in a daily, systematic program, guided by professional teachers."

Magician To Entertain Catholic Women At First Meeting

FRANCES IRELAND

With a charter membership of 175, Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic Woman's club, Arlington Heights, will hold its first monthly meeting October 2 at 1:30 p. m. at the field house.

Rev. Harold T. O'Hara, pastor of the new parish and spiritual advisor of the club, will open the meeting with a prayer, after which the club's first president, Mrs. William L. Hatch, will preside.

The social committee, consisting of Mrs. M. C. Burkhart, chairman, Mrs. Neal Higgins, Mrs. John D. Lagorio Jr., and Mrs. Albert J. Simon, will greet members upon arrival at the meeting, perform introductions and help members become acquainted with one another.

THE PROGRAM will feature "The Magic Lady," Miss Frances Ireland. A charming personality who skillfully combines mystery and humor, Miss Ireland is known among magicians in every country in the world because of her books on the magic profession. She is associate editor of The Linking Ring, international trade journal for magicians, and was a studio audience entertainer at radio station WGN for five years.

One of Miss Ireland's specialties is taking some lucky lady on an imaginary shopping trip where they spend real money, dollar after dollar, but always have more than they started out with. The audience is also entertained with a series of hats, made right before its eyes, all out of the same bit of felt.

Miss Ireland has amazed many woman's clubs throughout the country.

The tea hour will be under the supervision of Mrs. Harold C. Weiss, house chairman, assisted by Mrs. J. L. Raffel, co-chairman, and Mrs. Donald E. Coffey, tea hostess for October.

Eastwood Group Plans Activities For Year

A men's night stag opened the fall and winter social season for members of the Eastwood Community association of Arlington Heights Friday night. The stag, like the forthcoming women's card party, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Anderson. The card party will be held this Friday, September 26.

Following the plan to hold two dances a year, members of the association will hold their fall dance at the Mt. Prospect Country club November 8. Tickets have already gone on sale throughout the Eastwood area. A spring dance was held early in April.

The final social event for the association during 1952 will be an annual Christmas party for the youngsters. The Christmas party will be held in the fieldhouse in December.

Purpose of the stag and the card party are to introduce new members and new neighbors in the Eastwood area. Thirty-eight men attended the stag which was hosted by Jack Anderson, social chairman.

Life and Limb

Skids and falls are the oldest and most frequent dangers to life and limb, and daily vigilance needs to be kept against them.

Holy Name Group Of New Parish Holds First Meet

The newly formed Holy Name Society of Our Lady of the Wayside parish, Arlington Hts., held its first meeting September 12 at the American Legion hall. President John J. Barrett called to order more than 60 men of the new parish, and Father O'Hara, pastor and spiritual director, offered the opening prayer.

Newly appointed officers were introduced and each member present arose and introduced himself. There was a short business meeting, the principal feature of which was a talk by Father O'Hara explaining the aims of the society and outlining plans for the new parish building. All the new members then took the Holy Name pledge.

John Solon's arrangements committee provided refreshments and television facilities so the members could watch the Davey-Graziano fight.

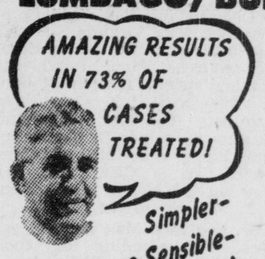

Home Dangerous

You may not think of your home as a booby trap — but accident statistics prove that hazards lurk in every nook and cranny of the house.

The Pi Beta Phi Alumnae club in this area will hold its annual Arrow Craft tea and sale September 27 from 2 to 5 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Willis Hubbard, 525 Bristol lane, Arlington Heights.

Mrs. L. P. Swanson of Arlington Heights, chairman of the tea and sale, will be assisted by the following: Mrs. William Hannun, Arlington Heights; Mrs. Roscoe Batts, Mount Prospect, tea arrangements; Mrs. Bruce Fullerton, Arlington Heights, publicity, and Mrs. Joseph Grinnell, Arlington, invitations. Mrs. William Hull, Arlington Heights, is in charge of the sale of the Pi Phi cook books.

Last year's tea and sale, always the club's main project of the year, was held only a short time after the founding of the alumnae club in this area.

ARROW CRAFT hand woven aprons, baby clothes, skirts, scarves and many other useful articles will be sold to raise funds for the support of the Pi Beta Phi Settlement school in Gatlinburg, Tenn.

These handwoven articles are produced in the homes of the people in the Gatlinburg area under the supervision of the fraternity and are marketed by the fraternity. All the profits are used for the school.

The school, sponsored by Pi Beta Phi, was founded in 1912 by the fraternity and has been supported by it since. Because the Tennessee and Kentucky mountain area was found to be most needy from the standpoint of education, the Settlement school was established there and it is still the only educational facility in the vicinity.

In addition to improving educational standards, it has been instrumental in improving public health, fostering new industrial and commercial activities and generally improving the standard of living.

Mothers of active members of Pi Beta Phi and mothers of recent graduates have been asked to pour at the tea and sale. They are Mrs. Erle Ellis, Mrs. Roger Ryden, Mrs. Donald Cox, Mrs. William Franke, Mrs. Paul Miller, Mrs. Walter Weiser, Mrs. Charles Groth, Mrs. Henry Skadberg, Mrs. Donald Frisk and Mrs. Kenneth Kennedy. CIRCLING THE TOWN
BY PHYLLIS KNIGHT

New people, either new to town or to a prominent organization, are in the spotlight this week.

Newcomers are being feted today, Thursday, by members of the Newcomers' club at a tea at the field house from 2 to 4 p.m. Members of the club will be on hand to greet and introduce guests to themselves and to each other. All new residents are invited to attend and to hear about this organization, especially designed for them.

The club plans many functions throughout the year with "getting acquainted" the theme of all. There are informal meetings devoted to entertainment, educational talks and group outings. In addition card clubs are organized and dances sponsored.

Yesterday another new group, the new members of the Arlington Heights Woman's club, had a tea given in their honor. The party took place at the home of Mrs. Clarence Hendrickson. Membership chairman, Mrs. Norman Crandall, planned the affair to introduce the 70 women who have just joined the club to its officers and to the other members of her committee, who assisted.

Mrs. Charles Stadelman, the club's president, explained the year's program to the group.

Golden Days

Two Arlington churches are entering their second half-centuries of service to their parishioners and to the community.

St. John Evangelical and Reformed church began its celebration with last Sunday's services and will continue until Sunday, Oct. 5, when the peak will be reached with the sacrament of holy communion. Members will participate in numerous special services and other special events during the next ten days.

At solemn high mass last Sunday Samuel Cardinal Stritch dedicated the new St. James Catholic church building, and at the same time the members were aware that this was also the fiftieth anniversary of the parish.

Both churches have long records of service to their credit. As they look on toward their hundredth anniversaries, it is, no doubt, with the anticipation that their place will become even greater as the years go by.

All Together

With a Community Chest to include all charitable organizations about to become a reality, Arlington people can look forward to the day when they may make one contribution to cover all donations for the year, both to national and local funds.

The only way, of course, to make a Community Fund truly successful is to contribute generously—remember it's one gift to cover all funds—and to volunteer to help if that's at all possible.

When your telephone rings with a request for aid, say "yes" if you can—when your doorbell rings with a request for funds, by all means say "yes."

PTA Still Has Openings In Bridge Round Robin

The announcement of the Arlington Heights PTA-sponsored Bridge Round Robin having met with enthusiastic response, schedules for both afternoon and evening groups have been drawn up, with play to begin early in October. Because the number of players in each schedule must necessarily be divisible by four to complete tables, there are still a few openings.

Due to the interest shown it has been decided to keep enrollment open through October, when a new set of schedules will be formed. All bridge-playing members of the Arlington Heights PTA, parents and teachers, are invited to register individually or in couples for either the afternoon or evening groups. The entry fee (to be used for prize money at the end of the schedule) is 50 cents, and there is a 50 cents per person playing fee for each session. The Bridge Round Robin is a ways and means project of the PTA.

Registrations may be made, or further information obtained, by calling Mrs. G. A. Scott at Clearbrook 3-0277.

Injured In Accident At Railroad Crossing

Mrs. Claudeen Anderson, 50, South Shore Trailer Park, Lake Zurich, sustained injuries late Saturday night in an accident at Rand rd. and the Soo Line railroad tracks. She is in the Evanston hospital.

Her husband, W. F. Anderson, 53, said he was driving northeast on Rand rd. at 35 to 40 miles per hour. As he approached the railroad tracks, he told county police a black object came from nowhere and struck his car. There was no signal given at the crossing.

R. J. Hardin, of Fond du Lac, Wis., train engineer, told police that he was backing up 30 freight cars at from two to three miles per hour. He claims that the brakeman told him to slow down, then gave him the back-up signal and later flagged him to stop. As he stopped, the automobile struck the train.

The Anderson's dog, Dixie Bell, a four year old female Boston bull, got out of the car during the accident. They are still looking for her and would appreciate information concerning her whereabouts.

Howard Graff, 33, Wheeling, was taken into custody Saturday following an accident at routes 83 and 68. There were no injuries.

Women Suffer Minor Injuries When Auto Strikes Pole In Heights

Two women received minor injuries in Arlington Heights Sunday evening when the auto in which they were riding had a tire blowout, went out of control and struck a Public Service pole on Northwest hwy., across from Highland ave.

Driver of the auto was Douglas Spence, 3642 W. Belmont, Chicago. His wife suffered a head injury and his daughter received several cuts.

A second accident in Arlington Heights resulted in property damage only. It occurred Saturday at Euclid and Walnut ave. Carol Jene Day, Coolidge ave., Palatine, was headed south on Walnut and failed to observe the stop sign, striking the auto driven by Mrs. Eileen M. Sparling, 938 N. Harvard, Arlington Hts., which was traveling west on Euclid.

North Arlington Fire Protection District Is Now In Operation

Seventy-five home owners residing in four subdivisions north of Arlington Heights, now have fire protection from a fire department that is especially equipped and manned to handle fires in areas without water mains.

The county court recently authorized the establishment of the district, which in turn has entered into a contract for service by the Prospect Heights fire department, which has a special setup with the dial telephone system through the Arlington Heights exchange, which insures immediate response by the firemen when an alarm is sounded.

The new protection district comprises Pinegate Highlands, the Stade Farm, Arlington Acres and Arlington Vista.

The officers are Terrence Ftizpatrick, president; James Benedetti, treasurer; William Thompson, secretary.

The organization of their own district was the only way in which the subdivisions mentioned above could secure adequate fire protection. The new district organized a year ago by the farmers only included farm land. Forest River district does not have its own equipment and Arlington Heights does not own rural apparatus.

The rating given areas served by the Prospect Heights department by the Chicago Board of Underwriters will entitle all property owners in the new district to get a reduction in insurance rates, which will probably exceed the small tax bill for the fire protection district.

The area immediately north of Arlington Heights and west of Rand road is served by the Palatine department. Prospect Heights handles the other side of that thoroughfare.

The new district has levied a tax that will be collected next spring. The contract with Prospect Heights provides for a minimum protection fee and a set amount for every fire call.

Antelope Beats Horse

An antelope would beat a race horse. Horses run at about 45 miles per hour; antelopes, about 62.

Mrs. Kamphenkel Elected To Fill State Office

MRS. W. F. KAMPHENKEL

Mrs. William F. Kamphenkel, wife of the pastor of St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church, Arlington Heights, was elected president of the Women's Guilds of the Northern Illinois Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed churches at the state convention in Elgin September 10 and 11.

Mrs. Kamphenkel was secretary of the organization and has been active in its work for many years. She has also been president of the Arlington Hts. region of Women's Guilds.

OES Members Attend Charity Party

The following members of Arlington Heights chapter 992, Order of the Eastern Star, attended the charity party at the Chez Paree September 20: Gertrude Schroeder, associate matron; Myrtle Frey, instructress; Florence Luckner, secretary; Betsy Geisel, marshall; Maybelle Jasper, past worthy matron, and Gladys Leicht, correspondent.

The party was given by the Rita T. Johnson clubs, OES of Illinois. All profits from this affair will be divided into four equal parts and will be given to the organization's four worthy causes: the Macon Sanitarium, the Rockford Home, Schriner's Hospital for Crippled Children and the Illinois Masonic hospital.

Many Bike Riders Disregard Police Rules

Arlington Heights police department is a bit shorthanded. Otherwise there are many parents who would have been called to the police department the past ten days.

"Too many children are riding on sidewalks and parking their bikes in front of stores," says Lt. Karstens. "Our department gives talks in all school rooms each fall warning bike riders."

One of the usual bike traffic jams is at the corner of Davis and Vail although a parking rack is in the park.

A child's disregard of ordinances gives the police the right to impound the bike until parents bail them out.

Happy Birthday

Marian and George Harris are inviting all Arlington Hts. to their birthday party next Monday at the Arlington Hts. Pharmacy which opened two years ago. Roses, ice cream, balloons and prizes will be given away.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

That the ability to distinguish and choose between the real and unreal is a determining factor in improving one's concept of life and rising above untoward circumstances, will be explained in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 28. The title of the Lesson-Sermon will be REALITY.

The Golden Text is from 1 Chronicles (29: 11) "Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all."

Lesson-Sermon passages from the Bible (King James Version) include:

"If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him" (James 1: 5).

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include:

"All substance, intelligence, wisdom, being, immortality, cause, and effect belong to God. These are His attributes, the eternal manifestations of the infinite divine Principle, Love. No wisdom is wise but His wisdom; no truth is true, no love is lovely, no life is Life but the divine; no good is, but the good God bestows" (p. 275).

The Great American Nondescript

Chicago, Ill. — The great American nondescript could be a term for only one thing: the American male. The Common Man, Old Faceless Slob, as Westbrook Pegler refers to him. And he's never happier than when he is absolutely sure he's a faceless slob. Let some myopic grandma peer mistakenly at him in the vague belief he looks like her dear nephew Jack, and our hero mutters to himself, "What's she looking at me for?" then looks to see if the morning egg is off his face and surreptitiously checks buttons, zipper and garters. Something's wrong, people are looking at him. That lovely, faceless slob feeling is gone.

A man is only anonymous in a crowd if he doesn't standout in a crowd. For this reason, eastern bankers, a notoriously conservative lot who would rather get caught absconding with the cash than wearing Bing Crosby type sport shirts, all wear Bing Crosby type sport shirts when in California. All the common men wear 'em out there and a guy in staid business suit would stand out like Farouk in Ballet Russe. Speaking of Farouk, there's a guy who would probably, at the moment, give anything to be a faceless slob. Poor kid; half of it comes natural to him and he's working desperately toward the facelessness part.

Wives who are impatient with the dullness of the crust-winner's duds and who contrive and scheme to get the old man to blossom out in something gay that sets off his size 46, meet with stolid, emphatic refusals. These determined dolls then become good customers for those gaudy Christmas ties which hubby later, and covertly, gives to the Salvation Army. They, in turn, foist them off on some unsuspecting bum, who indignantly throws them away because he, too, has his rights as a faceless slob.

The old man is content when he can walk down the street and see one hundred suits just like his. Same pattern, color and cut. He would shudder in horror at the mere thought of wearing an exclusive creation designed just for him by somebody like, say Jacques Fath. Jacques would be strapped if he catered to men because the average guy is accustomed to wearing his suits five to ten years. And he looks with suspicion on any major change in styling. For instance, maybe one year manufacturers will place four buttons on the sleeve instead of three. Millions of dollars are spent on advertising to get old faceless to accept the change. But it's a slow process It's slow. A thing like that takes time to catch on, y'know.

"My men ask for the Dodges first when they are loading up for a job. They seem to like the easy maneuverability of our Dodge trucks and it's no secret to any of us that they ride better.

"We're sold on Dodge "Job-Rated" trucks because they're available in a large range of sizes and with a big selection of special equipment to fit all of our jobs—or as you people put it, they're 'Job-Rated'."

In the Shadow of + + + The Steeple

by William O. McGill

Some time ago I saw a magazine article headed "50,000 Errors in the Bible." The promptness of the sensational press; I thought much of that hullabaloo died when Harry Fosdick was put out of the Presbyterian church for his radical views of Scripture (1911, I think.'

Sure, there are some errors in the Bible, particularly the King James version — none of them serious. But it is not because of the errors in translation and copying that the National Council of Churches and before them the International Council of Religious Education have set in motion the preparation of a new version of the Scriptures which will be available to the public Tuesday, September 30.

THE NEW VERSION has been prepared because there have been changes in language in the past three centuries. It is the latest step in the process of presenting the Word of God to His people in the language they use everyday. When the Latin Vulgate was prepared by Jerome, it was used by people who spoke Latin. Luther, Calvin, Tyndale, Wycliff, Hus, all translated the Scriptures into their own languages. Indeed, until they did, there was really no German literature or French, English or Bohemian literature. As written languages they hardly existed until it became necessary to write the Scriptures in that language.

The King James version was as common and usual as Shakespeare's plays and the Canterbury Tales (and it is too bad we have forgotten that these were common and usual). Translation has improved a great deal in three centuries. Better copies of the material to be translated have been discovered. For this we are indebted to the archeologists burrowing into vanished cities. The genius of the Hebrew poets and the saltiness of Hebrew puns has been recovered; the reading qualities of the new version will be vastly greater than that of the older version.

There will be one deterrent factor to widespread use of the new version—a matter of economics. Fifteen years of research and collaboration by outstanding scholars and the cost of good printing represent a sizeable investment. This makes the price of the new version somewhat higher than that of an Authorized (King James) version. There are no old plates to be reused. But it is hoped that the price will be diminished soon.

THE PEOPLE ARE ready for a new version in living language. I feel that I have some assurance of this readiness, for I seldom read publicly from the King James version. There have been frequent times when persons have commented that they never sensed the Scriptures quite that way. The Lesson which they hear has been edited, it has been compared from King James to the older Revised, perhaps to Moffatt or Goodspeed, possibly an effort at translation has been undertaken. The result is an effort to read in language that is alive to the congregation. I find that persons appreciate it.

I feel sure that many thousands in the church will appreciate the Book in language that speaks in their condition, their interest, in their terms, yet remains the eternal Word.

Five Day Sale Opens Tuesday At Palatine PTX

Next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, Palatine PTX will open its five-day Fall and Winter sale of children's good, but outgrown clothing in the National Guard offices, southeast corner of Railroad and Bothwell aves., Palatine.

Mothers who wish to sell children's clothes through PTX are asked to bring in these items as early as possible during the week, in order to take full advantage of the short time the shop will be open. Since PTX cannot maintain its regular every-Thursday-morning schedule until permanent quarters in the high school are available, the PTX management has arranged this special selling to accommodate the hundreds of customers in this and surrounding communities who have made frequent use of this service sponsored by the Palatine Parent-Teacher association.

INFANTS' OUTER garments . . boys' and girls' and teen-age clothing of all kinds (except shoes, hats and underwear) will be in great demand. It has been decided not to accept any adult clothing for sale because of limited time and lack of space. Boy and girl scout uniforms . . . galoshes and rubbers . . . ice skates are also desired. All clothing must be freshly laundered or dry cleaned, and in excellent condition. PTX deducts 25% commission from the selling price.

Payment for merchandise sold during this sale will be made by checks, which will be mailed to the sellers about the middle of October.

The schedule of receiving and selling days follows:

Tuesday, Sept. 30, hours 10 to 5, receiving only.
Wednesday, Oct. 1, hours 10 to 5, receiving and selling.
Thursday, Oct. 2, hours 10 to 5, receiving and selling.
Friday, Oct. 3, hours 10 to 9, receiving and selling.
Saturday, Oct. 4, hours 10 to 5, selling and pick up.

Donates Three Musical Instruments To School

Clarence Petersen, Prospect Heights, has given the Arlington Heights township high school three musical instruments, one alto saxophone, one cornet, and one B-flat clarinet.

In announcing this gift, LeRoy J. Knoeppel, superintendent, said, "As a result of the donation, three individuals will be able to study music who might not have been able to do so if they had to purchase their own instruments.

"We probably will never be able to supply all the instruments to students that would like to take music lessons. This generosity will certainly help provide music instruction to some who normally would not get it."

Coal Facts

The average amount of coal consumed in the U. S. is 3 tons per year per person.

Injunction Hearing Again Postponed

Because of a crowded docket Judge Haas has again postponed the injunction hearing as led by school district 25 against the township school trustees and the county superintendent of schools has been postponed to October 28.

The request of School District 57 that it be assigned to a master in chancery was opposed by Attorney Bernstein because of its cost.

A vacuum bottle from which you can eat as well as drink has been made. Designed for school or work lunches, it's good for hot soups, stews, baked beans, or puddings, and for cold salads and desserts. The mouth is wide enough so that contents can be spooned out.

Local School Problems To Be Discussed At Tri-County Meeting

Robert R. Lockwood, president of the Arlington Heights board of education, will preside over a panel discussion of the most pressing problems peculiar to suburban areas at the fall conference and dinner meeting of the tri-county school board association October 2, at the Hotel Morrison.

Kenneth Dougan, president of the Elk Grove consolidated school board and a member of the high school board, is on the eight man panel.

Tax rate limits, bonding power, trailer camps, migrant workers, transportation in suburban areas, and the situations arising out of school district reorganization are among the problems which have already been noted by the panel, which forms a standing committee to define local school problems and to work with the state School Problems Commission to seek a solution to these problems.

Other workshop conferences, which commence at 4:30 p.m., will discuss the school playground, how school boards can appraise their own systems, the use of business methods in running modern schools, and how the physical envirnoment of the classroom can aid the learning process.

All school board members, officials and administrators are invited to attend.

BALBO, ATLAS AND GOETZ IN WRESTLING SHOW AT HEIGHTS

Dempsey Referee In Head Match For Wheeling Lions

Referee Jack Dempsey is one of the big attractions of Friday night's wrestling show at Arlington Heights high school, September 26, sponsored by the Wheeling Lions club. Three matches are scheduled on the card, including a tag affair.

Heading the card is a match between Pat O'Connor, sensational young New Zealand heavyweight and the Mighty Atlas, world's most powerful wrestler, spectacular with his aeroplane spin and body press and who can perform such amazing feats of strength as bending a flat steel bar a quarter of an inch in thickness around his arm. This match will be a two out of three fall verdict with Jack Dempsey as the referee.

ALSO ON THE CARD is a tag match between The Great Balbo, claimant of the light heavyweight championship and Billy Goelz, of Fox Lake on one team, and the colorful Gypsy Joe and rugged Rudy Kay of the northwest side of Chicago on the other. Mrs. Gypsy Joe, attired in regal gypsy robes, accompanies her husband to the ringside and coaches him in code signal. Matches start at 8:30.

The card also includes famous television stars Ned Taylor and Billy Hickson.

ENTIRE PROFITS from this show, which promises to be the biggest event of the season, are to be used towards the purchase of an emergency car fund to be donated by the Wheeling Lions club to the village of Wheeling.

Tickets are price at $2 and $3, all taxes paid, and may be purchased from any Lions club member. They are also available at Millay's or Rudy Stein's in Arlington Heights, Kruse tavern in Mt. Hinsdale At Maine League Opener

MAC SAYS

BY G. A. McELROY

Saturday's Northwest conference opening grid games certainly bore out the prediction the championship would be a toss up with the most evenly contested race in years coming up. Two 14 to 13 games and one 12-7 certainly do not indicate much to choose among the teams after one week end of play. The prediction of Wauconda, Palatine and Antioch being the top three held up by a narrow margin.

Bensenville showed more promise than their coaches had led us to expect. The Bisons lacked the weight of Palatine but had more team scrap. The Pirates played real football for six minutes at the start of the third quarter and got themselves 14 points, but otherwise their offense bogged down due to lack of line blocking.

THIS FRIDAY NIGHT Palatine will draw a tougher opponent than Bensenville in the veteran Antioch Sequoits who last Saturday dropped a 14-13 decision to Wauconda. Antioch has a tough line and both size and speed in their backfield.

On the basis of the showing of the two teams to date Antioch would rate a slight edge in what should shape up as an extremely close ball game. Perhaps again "Skip" Hausemann's educated toe on those point after touch down kicks might give Palatine the victory.

Saturday afternoon Wauconda will be a decided favorite over Grayslake. Wauconda beat Maryville, 12-0. Maryville beat Grayslake, 18-2. That is the basis for at least a two touchdown edge for Coach Haley's Bulldogs. Bensenville travels to Grant Saturday night and in our book rates a touchdown edge as favorite to cop their first league victory. Ela-Vernon has an open date to prepare for Palatine October 4.

ARLINGTON'S IMPROVEMENT over the Barrington game as shown in their 12-0 victory over Marmion should encourage Arlington fans and players for the coming West Suburban games.

Coach "Bus" Ormsbee and his Cards have a tough row ahead in their own league, but a glance at last year's record indicates there is only one direction Arlington can go and that is up.

Here's hoping the Cards do find a victim or two in their league schedule. Certainly they will be no match for Maine and Hinsdale, who boast a pair of the best teams in the entire suburban area. There is consolation in the fact the sophomore team will be a top contender and give Arlington hopes of teams of major caliber the next two seasons.

BARRINGTON FOUND the North Suburban league a lot tougher than the old Northwest. Though they dropped a 20-6 decision to Woodstock, it should be mentioned that the latter was the pre-season pick to win the league. Woodstock is set this year with Guy Curtright Jr., son of the coach, one of the best boys. Curtright tallied twice against Barrington.

The Bronchos of Barrington are at home Saturday to Zion-Benton, who last week played a scoreless tie with Libertyville. Lake Forest, supposed to be at low ebb on material this year, beat Warren 19-2 after the latter outplayed Palatine. That gives an idea of the difference between the two circuits in football.

DUE TO DIFFERENCES of opinion as to the best time to hold football games, Palatine's home schedule this year has one on Friday night, one on a Saturday afternoon, and two on Saturday nights. This test really will not mean much for it depends to some extent who you are playing as to the turnout.

Two weeks ago Palatine had their best opening crowd ever against a team which in itself was not a rival or a specific drawing card. This week comes the Friday night game with the strongest league opponent on the home schedule, Antioch.

October 11 when Libertyville comes for a non-league affair in the afternoon, the fact that it is homecoming and that Libertyville always has a good following, should give Palatine a good day time crowd. The Grayslake game will be played Saturday night, October 25. The schools of the conference have tried all these times for staging games and are pretty well agreed Saturday night is the best.

ARLINGTON NOTES: Coach Ray DeGreeff, hospitalized last week by a locked cartilage in his knee, was seen back at school with a cane . . . "A" club picked Johnny Eakins president, Tom Theis vice-president and Denis Straus secretary-treasurer Friday . . . Certainly shows the effect of holding elections during the football season . . . The movies of the Marmion game, taken by George Larsen, were a great improvement over the previous week. Such films end alibis and excuses of players for not following assignments, and should be great teachers . . .

It looks as though rubber footballs are destined to replace the leather type. Rubber covered balls were used in 1,000 games last season, and will be used in 10,000 affairs this year . . . Bob Nolan, last year's Wauconda athlete-plus, is reportedly ending up at Miami in Florida . . . Bob George of Highland Park has wound up at Iowa, refusing the Phillips Oilers' offer.

Athletic Director Tells Of Arrangements For Doctor At Games

To our football fans:

To clarify some honest misunderstanding, I would like to report that a Barrington doctor was present at our game on September 12, and that arrangements were made with Marmion to have their school doctor present last Friday night.

All arrangements had been closed by phone with Mr. Hank Berg, athletic director at Marmion. Why the doctor did not appear was a mystery to Mr. Berg himself, and he was truly regretful about the whole matter.

Our team physician will return soon from his vacation and should be present at our next home game. You may rest assured that every effort will be made to have a doctor present, either locally or visiting, whenever our regular team physician cannot be present.

Favor LaGrange In Arlington Game Saturday

While Arlington journeys to LaGrange Saturday afternoon as the West Suburban conference opens the football season this week end, Hinsdale plays at Maine Friday night in what could be the most crucial game of the year. Both squads are rated among the strongest in the suburban area and will certainly be at or near the top in league circles.

Maine beat Elgin, 25-7, and Thornton, 20-0. Hinsdale walloped Lake Forest, 55-0, and East Rockford, 32-13. Both squads have ten lettermen back. Hinsdale was undefeated last year in conference play, while Maine had a 4-2-1 mark.

AT MAINE the lettermen include Ray Clausen, 6' 3", 175 and Roy Larson, 6', 180 at ends; Jim Meyer, 5' 9", 170 and Dale Anderson, 5' 7", 176 at guards; Don May, 6' 1", 182, and Wayne Moeller, 6' 2", 202 at tackles. In the backfield are Clem Ryan, 5' 9", 183 at full; Bruce Gallup, 5' 9", 183 and Don Halvorsen, 5' 11", 174 at halves, and Marv Nyren, 5' 11", 183, at quarterback.

In last year's scoring Ryan ranked second in the league, scoring five TDs and 13 points after, second only to Hinsdale's graduated Den Vena.

FOR HINSDALE the lettermen include Robert Marek, 140 and Kelley Skinner, 205 at end; Jack Zavertnik, 180 and Dick Low, 166 at tackles; Tom Wagner, 165 and Jim Kraml, 163 at guard; Jerry Winter, 155 at center. Only Winter and Kraml were regulars last season.

In the backfield lettermen include Richie Kay, 174 at full; William Morrow, 153 at one of the halves, and Frank Stanicek, 163 at quarterback. Gone from Hinsdale's championship aggregation of 1951 are all of the boys who tallied points.

Assisting head coach Ken Olson at Maine are Joe Hughes and Don Schroeder, while assisting head coach Harvey Dickinson at Hinsdale are Walter Sherman and Russell Poppenhager.

FOR ARLINGTON it will be the first game of the second year of competition in the West Suburban loop. The Cardinals failed to win a game last year, but hope to take one or two this season.

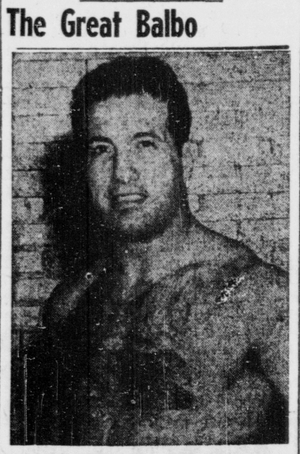

Injuries Friday night will prevent Joe Rezek from playing for the Cardinal and White, and may restrict Tom Theis. Though LaGrange lost their one pre-league encounter, 20-0, it was to strong Oak Park of the Suburban league. The Lions should field a good team and are definite favorites Saturday afternoon.

Fans wishing to see the game are advised the stadium is located about five blocks west of Mannheim road, route 45, and three blocks south of the CB&Q railroad tracks. Game time is 12:15 with the frosh-soph contest slated to precede the varsity encounter.

The Cardinals travel to LaGrange Saturday afternoon before returning home Friday, October 3, for the homecoming tilt with Glenbard.

Mount Prospect Golfers To Dine Next Wednesday

The Mt. Prospect Twilight Golf League ended its twelfth successful season of tournament play with "Cinderella's" Golden's Food Shop of the Tuesday division emerging to the title of league champions after severely trouncing the Wednesday division champion—Busse Motors to the tune of 7 to 3 in the annual Tuesday-Wednesday divisional playoffs held at Mt. Prospect country club.

It may be recalled that Golden's Food Shop earned the nickname of "Cinderella team" by putting up a terrific "Frank Meriwell" finish, nosing both K. R. Whitton and Commissioner Busse from top honors in the Tuesday diivsion after the latter two teams had dominated the standings all season. The momenturn of such a magnificent stretch drive was enough to carry the team to victory over Busse Motors — champions of the Wednesday division, and in contrast, a team that didn't know how it felt to be out of first place because hey dominated the position for the entire season.

LEAGUE champions are listed as follows: "A" Hal Jauch, "B" Father Chaffe, "C" Bill Golden, "D" Ed Planert, "E" Bob Duncan.

The Mt. Prospect twilight golf league will hold its annual banquet Wednesday, October 1, at the Mt. Prospect country club, at which time trophies will be presented to winning team members and their sponsors. Prizes are also to be given to the winners of low net in their class on matches played August 13.

Many thanks have been accorded "Red" Barrow, retiring senior president, and all other officers of the league who made this season the success it was.

West Suburban Teams Win 9, Lose 4, Tie 1

West Suburban league grid teams gave a good account of themselves in season football openers the past two weeks, prior to conference openers this week. The local loop won nine, lost one, tied one in eleven contests.

With Hinsdale leading the way with 55-0 and 32-13 victories, four schools were undefeated. The Red Devils, defending West Suburban champs, whitewashed Lake Forest of the North Suburban league, then beat Rockford East.

MAINE BEAT ELGIN of the Big Eight and Thornton. Downers Grove took East Aurora of the Big Eight and Naperville of the Little Seven loop. Riverside-Brookfield defeated Morton of the Suburban league in its only pre-league encounter.

Only Glenbard, which tied Wheaton of the Little Seven and lost to Vocational of Chicago, and LaGrange, which lost to Oak Park of the Suburban loop, failed to win openers.

IN TOTAL, the West Suburban teams outscored their opponents. 249-112, as they racked up a 2-0-1 record against the Little Seven league, a 3-1 mark against the Big Eight, an even split against the Suburban conference, and a 3-2 slate against other teams.

Bensenville Favored To Get First Win

by DON TUCHSCHERER

With two one-point losses suffered, the Bensenville Bisons will approach the game Saturday night with the Grant Bulldogs seeking to change their luck.

Two hard lost encounters have given the Bison squad a much needed seasoning. Grant, also with two losses, will be looking for their first victory as well.

Considering the caliber of play displayed by the Bisons against Palatine, and the power Grant showed against Ela, the clashing of Bensenville and Grant should be quite evenly matched.

ONE FACTOR that may help the Bulldogs will be the numerous injuries inflicted upon the Bensenville team, including Ronnie LaFata and Chester Koop, both starting halfbacks.

Bensenville's passing and receiving power should easily match the Bulldogs. Pete Welch and Herb Brown should again demonstrate quite a bit of strength with Emory and Koop on the receiving end.

BENSENVILLE showed the typical Bison fight and spirit Saturday and though up against a more experienced and heavier team came within a narrow margin of winning. Bison coaches admit that their turn will be in 1953, but are not going to do badly this year. In fact, the Bisons are the favorite to whip Grant.

Grant dropped a 12-7 decision at Lake Zurich last week to Ela-Vernon's passing combination. They will find the Bisons can also pass and will be mighty tough in the line. Grant is definitely down this year, but not so far down they will not win some games. The Bisons will play a single game at Grant starting at 8:00 p. m.

WAUCONDA, with two victories under their belts, will be favored to make it three in a row Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the expense of newcomer to the conference, Grayslake. It will be a single game program played on the Wauconda field where speedy George Sutko of the Bulldogs likes to romp for touchdowns on long runs.

Last week a five point margin was the greatest in three league games. Only the Wauconda-Grayslake game is expected to be decided by more than one touchdown this week.

NO SERIES in the Northwest conference is more even than the Palatine-Antioch record, with each school winning five games. From 1942 through the fall of 1947, each school took turns winning. Then in '48 and '49 Antioch copped two in a row, with Palatine retaliating in '50 and '51. At that rate this Friday night will be Antioch's turn.

In the Bensenville-Grant series the Bisons have won five, lost four and tied one. Biggest score was last year's 32-0 whitewashing administered by Grant with the 60 points by both squads in 1950 a record in the series. The one tie was a 7-7 affair in 1948.

Friday night one of the crucial games of the Northwest schedule will be played at Palatine Community park between Antioch's veteran title contending Sequoits and the rugged Palatine Pirates. Wauconda, Palatine, and Antioch are regarded as the top teams in an evenly matched league.

Last week Wauconda had to get the breaks to nose out Antioch, 14-13. Friday night's battle between Antioch and Palatine is expected to be just as close. Palatine and Wauconda do not meet until the end of the season so the Pirates must win or give the Bulldogs a decided edge in the fight for the championship.

INJURIES HAVE hit Palatine with Captain Dick Abrahamson likely to be out of action with a bad knee injured in both Palatine games. Bob McKee, starting guard on the offensive team, has been ill this week and will see limited action, if available for duty. Palatine's halfbacks, Paul Schrage and Gordon Bruno, looked very good at Bensenville Saturday night, but Norman Stenzel and Paul Hess ran through the varsity for six touchdowns Tuesday in a scrimmage to indicate they are still in the battle for halfback positions.

Palatine showed a stout defense at Bensenville, but looked good on offense for only a portion of one quarter. Coaches Welty and Lutz are working the squad hard and the Pirates will be keyed for a top performance Friday night.

PALATINE'S SOPHS have a lot of speed and size this year with two new boys, Eck and Cordo, showing up fine as ball carriers along with Lorden, Penning, and Hildebrandt who played Palatine frosh ball last year. The Palatine boys are favored to win the preliminary Friday night but will be minus one of their best performers in Dave Cornwell.

Dave caught a touchdown pass in Bensenville end zone in the last quarter of Palatine's 20-0 victory, but was tackled and suffered a badly broken collarbone. Cornwell was taken to the Elmhurst hospital where surgery was required in order to set the break. Dave, whose father played end at Michigan in the Bennie Oesterban era, will be lost to the Pirates for the season.

ANTIOCH HAS a line averaging 180 pounds and four were regulars from last season. The backfield has a 215 pound fullback in Charles Bock and the 1951 regular quarterback in Bob Weber. The backfield averages 175 and has more speed and class than for several seasons.

Arlington Breaks Losing Streak To Beat Marmion 12-0

History almost repeated itself on the Arlington Heights gridiron Friday night as Johnny Eakins and Dick Winterbauer almost duplicated their feats of October 27, 1951. That was the last time the Cardinals tallied a touchdown until last week when the locals broke a streak of ten games without a win stretching into three seasons.

Five games ago it was a pass from Winterbauer to Eakins that scored the only TD in a 32-7 loss to Riverside-Brookfield. Friday night it was a pass from Winterbauer to Eakins for 30 yards to the one yard line, from which Winterbauer took it across in a quarterback sneak.

THE VARSITY WON Friday night, 12-0, in as pleasing an outcome as seen by Arlington fans since the Dad's night game November 3, 1950, when Mattoon graciously bowed to the Cardinals, 12-7. A sad note was the opener when Coach John Ligon's frosh-sophs, unbeaten since formation as a frosh squad the year before, took a 12-7 lacing.

The youngsters had copped six games without loss, outscoring their oppenents, 155-13. Only points tallied against the squad was last year by Maine in a 25-13 affair.

BETTER PROTECTION for the quarterback and some good running by a couple of backs did most to make Coach "Bus" Ormsbee's eyes shine. Where the Barrington Bronchos had smeared quarterback Dick Winterbauer the week before, this time Dick had all the time in the world to get off those aerials.

The wall around him held up and the difference paid off. Johnny Eakins and Roger Thomas, not among the starters, more than made up for it by their fine running and aggressive play, particularly on two occasions.

The Winterbauer-to-Eakins payoff pass, with Johnny being downed on the one occurred in the third period. An off tackle thrust failed but a quarterback sneak by Winterbauer broke the touchdown famine prevailing into five games.

IN THE FINAL period Eakins added some insurance to the Heights margin in a quick opener off tackle, thanks to the help of his mates. He went nine yards.

Compliments were in order for plenty of boys, including Joe Rezek and Denis Straus on defense. Lemke and Schaeffer recovered two Marmion fumbles to aid the cause while the entire line did a much better job than the week before.

The Cardinals made good on four of ten passes for a net gain of 56 yards. They also made 101 rushing for a 157 total compared to the losers' 123.

Applicants may register by telephone, mail or in person at the CYO gym, 31 East Congress st., where attendants are available from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. every week day.

Above, county commissioner Dan Ryan and Bishop Bernard J. Sheil, founder and director-general of the Catholic Youth Organization, look over some of the early registrants for the tournament.

Palatine Edges Bensenville In Rough And Tumble 14-13 Affair

by GERRY McELROY

The Palatine Pirates opened their bid for the 1952 conference title Saturday night, as they turned back the Bensenville Bisons, 14 to 13. The Pirates scored both their touchdowns on line plunges by Paul Schrage in the third quarter after the Bisons' strong passing attack had given them a 7 to 0 lead in the first half. Bensenville's passing set up another touchdown in the last quarter, but the try for the extra point was wide. The game was very rough and slowed by numerous penalties. Palatine was penalized 105 yards to Bensenville's 90.

Bensenville immediately took the initiative as the Bisons started their drive on their own 38. Welch threw a 14 yard pass to Koop for a first down on the Palatine 44. A fifteen yard pass alty on the Bisons put them back on their own 37. A 15 yard penalty on the Pirates for roughing the passer put Bensenville back on the enemy 44.

A PASS TO WELCH for seven yards and a three yard plunge gave the Bisons another first down on the Buc's 35. On the first down Koop was stopped with no gain, but on the second down Welch passed to Koop who stepped over the goal line. Janker's kick for the extra point was good and the Bisons took and early lead of 7 to 0.

In the second quarter the Pirates started to roll as Bruno ran 20 yards to the Bensenville 21, but a Pirate fumble stopped the drive just before the half ended.

THE THIRD QUARTER was a big one for Palatine as Schrage started it off with a 30 yard run to the Bensenville 29. Schrage again took the ball and gained 11 yards down to the 18. A 13 yard run by Bruno set up the scoring play as Schrage plunged over from the five yard line. The kick by Hauseman was good and the score was tied, 7 to 7.

Bensenville received the kickoff on their own 12, but an incomplete pass and a fifteen yard penalty forced the Bisons to punt from their own 15. A poor kick that traveled only 16 yards, was the break the Pirates needed for only six plays later Schrage plunged over from his own six. Hauseman's second successive kick for the extra point was good and later on provided the winning point. Bensenville received the kickoff on their 31, but a loss of nine yards and a five yard penalty again forced the Bisons to kick to the Palatine 38 where the third quarter ended.

A FIFTEEN YARD penalty on the Pirtes pushed the ball back to their own 23, but a complete pass to Breyer was good for 22 yards and a first down on their own 45. Palatine then fumbled and the Bisons took over on the Palatine 45. Gains of eight yards by Koop and Welch gave the Bisons a first down on the 29. Four incomplete passes lost the ball on downs for Bensenville and Palatine took over on their own 10.

On the first down Skip Hauseman punted to the Pirate 35 and the Bisons again took over the ball. Two passes, one for 13 and the other for 20 yards put the ball on the Palatine two yard line where Welch went over for the touchdown. Janker's kick for the extra point was wide and the Pirates led, 14 to 13, with only two minutes to play. When the game ended Palatine had charge of the ball on their own 48.

Palatine Sophs Deal Whitewash To Bensenville

The Palatine frosh-sophs won their first game of the season Saturday night as they whipped the Bensenville frosh-sophs, 20 to 0. Just before the first half ended, Lorden intercepted a Bison pass on the Bensenville 19 yard line. Four plays later Lorden plunged over for a touchdown. The kick for extra point was wide.

In the third quarter Palatine marched to the Bensenville eight on Coreo's and Eck's runs of 12 and 16 yards. Following a three yard plunge by Cornwall, Lorden went over the goal line from the five. Lorden's kick for the extra point was good and the Pirates led 13 to 0.

SHORTLY AFTER the fourth quarter got underway Palatine again started to drive toward the Bensenville goal line. An eight yard run by Hildebrandt gave the Pirates a first down on the Bensenville 24. On first down Eck ran around his left end for 13 yards to the 11 and on the next down Eck passed to Cornwall for the touchdown. The plunge for the extra point was good, and the Pirates won 20 to 0.

Heights Frosh Forget Fundamentals, Lose To Crystal Lake, 26-0

Forgotten fundamentals and lack of a desire to win cost the Arlington Heights high school frosh gridders a ball game Friday night at Crystal Lake when the local youngsters bowed, 26-0.

It wasn't just the score, though, that made coaches Curtis Larsen and Carl Nelson wonder why so much time has been wasted in practice. It was the utter lack of desire to play ball, a lackadaisical style of play with a few exceptions.

"We're going to show them once again how to put their football pants and pads on," fumed Larsen, "and start all over with fundamentals." Arlington failed to make a solitary first down and was behind, 13-0, at the half.

Playing good ball for the young Cardinals were Wayne Malzahn at end, Mickey Harris at guard and Richard Siech.

The frosh play host to Palatine this Thursday, September 25, starting at 4:00.

Ela Drubs Grant, 12-7

Ela-Vernon opened the Northwest season Saturday afternoon with a 12-7 victory over Grant high of Fox Lake. Passes from Don Prouty to John Langfield and Glenn Chaffin provided the offensive punch needed for the Ela victory. Neither team could put together enough running gains to even threaten to score.

In the second period Ela blocked a Grant punt on their 18 yard line and on the second play Prouty passed to Langfield for the touchdown. The try for point hit the crossbar on the top and bounced back into the playing field. A little later Dick Wisner tossed a pass to Jim Tromel good for 40 yards and first down on the Ela 10. Two plays later Wisner hit pay dirt. Tony Leonard converted on a place kick.

ELA TOOK THE lead in the third period. Don Prouty intercepted a short pass on Grant's 28 and ran it to the 13 yard stripe. On the next play Prouty tossed to Chaffin for the winning touchdown. Ela threatened again late in the game and had the ball on the Grant eight when the fourth quarter ended.

It was Ela's second win in a row as they dropped Oswego, 19-6, the previous week. The Bears will be idle this weekend with an open date in the conference schedule but will resume their bid for the league title next week Saturday in a home game with the Palatine Pirates.

Glenbard Falls To Vocational

by ED BERNDT

Overcoming the determination of a scrappy Glenbard eleven, Chicago Vocational scored early in the first quarter and again in the late stages of the fourth quarter to win, 12-0.

In the first period a pass from Weber to Tony Marcellari climaxed a 50 yard drive for the first Vocational score. In the closing minutes of the fourth quarter Weber threw one to Honecek for 28 yards and the TD.

GLENBARD FANS got a thrill in the last few seconds of the second quarter on a 65 yard pass play from Tom Peters to Tom Hill. However, time ran out before the 'Bards could run another play. Glenbard was on the move when the game ended.

Peters replaced Dean Reframe at quarterback in the second period when Dean was hurt. Glenbard suffered a severe loss in the third quarter when halfback Tom Hill suffered a reported broken ankle.

GLENBARD played good ball against Vocational, who is a member of the strong Red division in the City league. Bill Jordan played an outstanding game on defense for the Hilltoppers. The defense for both teams was good with few exceptions.

It was Vocational's first win in two contests, having tied Kelly last week. Glenbard now has a record of one loss and one tie. Next Saturday the Bards play their rival of all rivals, York. The game promises to be a real dilly with both teams 'up' for this one.

Jerry Curtwright, son of the former White Sox pitcher, Guy, ran 22 yards for Woodstock's opening touchdown. Bert Rank added the point. Woodstock scored twice in the second quarter with Bob Belshaw crossing the goal after taking a 15 yard pass from Don McCannon. Rank again added the point. Chuck Sahs intercepted a lateral and ran 80 yards for the victor's final touchdown.

Barrington staved off a shutout in the fourth period when Don Bock raced 30 yards for a score.

Offside Gives Wauconda 14-13 Win At Antioch

Wauconda slipped by their first conference test, one of the big ones, by a 14-13 count at Antioch. It could have been a tie score for Bass of Wauconda missed the place kick for extra point after the Bulldogs second touchdown. However, the officials ruled that Antioch was offside and gave Wauconda another chance. A fake kick and pass to Nolan provided the winning point.

Most of the action was packed into the second quarter when 21 points were scored. Sutko and Fishback both scored for Wauconda in this period while Bock went over for Antioch. George Sutko got away for several long runs for Wauconda but none were for touchdowns. His score came on a 15 yard end run. Antioch scored in the third quarter but failed on the extra point when it meant a tie score.

Antioch had the edge on first downs by 13 to eight but yardage was about even for the two teams with Antioch getting 295 Wauconda 290.

To Test Outboard Racing Noise Sunday At Minear Lake

Ten enthusiasts of outboard racing, including Bob Scott of Wheeling, have formed the Libertyville water sports association and are attempting to initiate outboard racing at Minear Lake, near Libertyville.

Trial races will be held this Sunday, September 28, to prove to authorities outboards are not noisy, with possibly 150 boats entered in various classes.

Outboard racing fans can reach Minear Lake by driving to the northern edge of Libertyville on Milwaukee ave., then turning east on Appely ave. to the lake about 2 blocks away. The lake covers 85 acres.

Though Bob Scott of Wheeling does not race, his 13-year-old daughter and 8-year-old son do. The latter won the Wisconsin state championship recently, while his daughter has already acquired five trophies for her efforts. She was interviewed on TV by Tom Duggan Monday night.

JUST DOGS

by DAVE TERRILL

The last time anybody thought to make a rough count, the country's promoters, advertising men, publicity men, press agents, and even some staid U. S. government bureaus, had divided the year up into more than two hundred "weeks." They range in purpose and seriousness from national brotherhood week to national laughter week.

One of the oldest, and certainly one of the worthiest, deadly serious in its intent, constructive in its approach, completely altruistic in purpose, is national dog week, which this year falls in the week of September 21 to 27.

THIS YEAR marks the 25th consecutive celebration of the event. Through two wars, a major depression, the boom and bust of the early twenties, through the Jazz Age, through the radio, motion picture and television age, from early aircraft fighting to move ahead to the present day of jets and atomic power, National Dog Week has not only survived but every year takes on bigger importance.

Today, twenty-five years after the first national week, we have better dogs, and better cared-for dogs than ever before. Such was not always the case, for back in 1928 when the event started, the founder, Captain Will Judy of Chicago, looked out on a world which had little use for the welfare of man's "best friend." Little by little, year by year, Captain Judy and a small group that banded with him made progress, until today three thousand cities and towns in all 48 states observe and celebrate National Dog Week.

HEADED BY BOB HOPE, the well known comedian of screen, stage, radio and television, general chairman for this year's event the seven point objectives of National Dog Week include: 1. A good home for every dog. 2. Elimination of stray dogs from the streets. 3. Better informed dog owners. 4. Teach consideration for dogs and all animals. 5. Emphasize the dog's use as a companion, helper and home protector. 6. Secure fair laws for dogs and their owners. 7. Teach respect for the rights of non-dog owners.

SPEAKING ABOUT the modern day and age of television and atomic power brings to mind that the well known radio show, "Life With Luigi," made its television debut last Monday evening at 8:30 p. m. over the CBS network.

One item of interest in connection with dogs and this television show is that Gaines Dog Feeds are being advertised on the show and in doing so will focus the attention of the public from coast to coast on the subject of dogs and their care.

Illini To Open Play Saturday Vs. Iowa State

Illinois' defending Big Ten champions are not accepting the favorite's title in their 1952 football opener with Iowa State Saturday.

The Illini were favorites entering all three previous games between the teams; yet only once—in 1930—did they produce the expected victory, and then by a rather unexpected 7-0 count. On the two other occasions they were tied by the Cyclones, 12-12 in 1927 and 20-20 in 1949.

As with Saturday's contest, the 1930 game opened Illinois season in Memorial Stadium. Two highly-polished ground attacks cancelled one another until Illini Pete Yanuskus' 7-yard touchdown dash in the fourth quarter gave Illinois a 7-0 victory. Not one pass was completed during the game.

THREE YEARS earlier the story had been different. That was the year Coach Bob Zuppke's Illini finished the season undefeated for the Big Ten title. Cyclone Harry Lindbloom sparked a fourth quarter drive that gave underdog Iowa State a 12-12 tie with the power of the Western Conference.

In the last meeting Illinois may have been lucky to emerge with a tie. State completed a pass to Illinois' nine-yard line as the contest ended.

The Cyclones shaded the Illini statistically—18-14 in first downs, 215 yards to 209 running, 155 yards to 97 passing, 37 yards to 32 in punting averages, and just one fumble against four.

A pass interception by Johnny Karras on Illinois' three-yard line stopped one thrust, but the next went all the way—64 yards—with Bill Chauncey going over from the four. Joe Brubaker kicked the point and Iowa State led 7-0 at halftime.

Illinois came back with two touchdowns in the first seven minutes of the second half. A bad Cyclone punt gave the Illini the ball on State's 33, and five plays later Karras cracked over from the 13. Lou Levanti's place-kick tied the score, 7-7.

MOMENTS LATER Levanti batted a State pass to Chuck Fox for an interception. A bernie Krueger to Karras aerial moved the Illini to Iowa's three, and Ronnie Clark broke over tackle for the score. Levanti converted and Illinois was ahead, 14-7.

Then State, featuring two 12-yard runs by Chauncey, an 11-yard pass from Bill Weeks to Dean Lann, and a final 18-yard end-around run by Melvin Meling, drove 77 yards to trail just 14-13.

The Illini countered with a quick TD after Karras returned the ensuing kickoff 44 yards to State's 47. Dick Raklovits carried over from the one to make it Illinois 20, Iowa State 13.

BUT THE CYCLONES struck back. A 30-yard pass to Jim Doran reached Illinois' 35, Weeks ran to the 20, and another pass to Doran put the ball on the one-foot line. Weeks sneaked over for the touchdown and Brubaker kicked the all important extra point for the tie.

Downers Grove Wins

Jack Dee plunged for two touchdowns and Dave Lauchle ran for another as Downers Grove beat Naperville, 20 to 7, Friday night in Naperville.

Quarterback Hyde ran 25 yards early in the second quarter for the Naperville touchdown and a 7 to 0 lead. Dee's first touchdown from the 2 yard line shortly before the half and Lauchle's first of two extra point kicks enabled Downers Grove to tie at 7 to 7. Lauchle ran end for three yards and a third period score, and Dee rammed over from the 2 in the fourth period.

Mt. Prospect Little Leaguers Dump Antioch, 10-1

The Mt. Prospect Merchants Little League team, playing the best game of the year, defeated Antioch at the Mt. Prospect home grounds Sunday, Sept. 21. The Antioch team is one of the better Little League teams in the state.

Antioch drew first blood when they scored a run in the first inning off Soenkson on two solid blows and a stolen base. A great shoe string catch by Chuck Wille in this inning saved Soenkson from further trouble.

Antioch never threatened again as the Mt. Prospect boys fielded flawlessly behind Soenkson and he allowed only three more hits the rest of the game. Another accomplishment of his was retiring the side in two innings via the strikeout route. In all, twelve Antioch boys went down swinging.

MT. PROSPECT'S hitters were held in check by Hollitz, opposing pitcher for the first two innings although Nau and Thill solved his offerings for singles in these frames.

In the third, the local boys, with Nau and Thill again singling, scored four runs with the help of two walks and an error. The fourth inning was also very productive for Mt. Prospect as three more runs crossed the plate.

Soenkson started the home half of the fifth by singling to center. Tews then drove a sharp hit into left field. Both advanced on a passed ball. Nolte then hit to short and on a play at the plate Soenkson slid in safe. Nau grounded to second and on the out, Tews scored. Ralph Wille then hit the hardest drive of the game to left field, but Anderson made a fine running catch to haul it in. Nolte scored after the catch. This ended the scoring for the localites.

IN THE INFIELD Nau, Bjorkland, Boedeker, Peterson and Nolte turned in fine plays while the outfielders, Tews, Thill, Wille and Dahlquist played well behind Soenkson. Ralph Wille turned in his usual fine game behind the plate.

Kenny Nau with three for four and Denny Thill, with two for three, led their team offensively.

Illinois Hunting Prospects Brighter

Scenes like this, showing three northern Illinois hunters with their day's limit of cock pheasant, should be duplicated more frequently this fall. The Illinois Conservation Department has predicted improved upland and waterfowl shooting generally in the state.

SPRINGFIELD—A bigger take of both upland game and waterfowl appears in the offing this year, according to Joe B. Davidson, superintendent of the conservation department's, Division of Game Management. Last year's season on upland game species was generally rated only fair.

Here's Davidson's report in detail:

PHEASANTS: These birds are showing a 30 per cent increase in the number of broods, and the broods are larger. Heavy rains caused only local losses of chicks, particularly in Livingston county.

QUAIL: Bobwhite production in Illinois last year was below average and generally poor throughout the nation. But the appearance of many young birds this spring has been heartening and points to a good season.

RABBITS: Young cottontails are more numerous than last year, although few are being sighted in the extreme north and in the southern tip of the state. The central and north central areas show an upswing. The rabbits are still in the depressed area of their up and down cycle of population.

SQUIRRELS: Better than 1951 which produced few squirrels but lots of nuts and acorns. These laid a good foundation for the new growing squirrel crop. Hunters in the southern zone, where squirrel season now is under way, have been handicapped by dry, noisy woods.

WATERFOWL: Low water levels in river bottoms are permitting a good crop of duck foods to grow. If water rises in the fall to put the crop under, thus making it accessible to the waterfowl, they'll be likely to hang around Illinois longer than they did last year.

The 10-day increase in the 1952 waterfowl gunning season also will be an aid to hunters since it assures gunners in all areas of Illinois' migratory bird routes of having birds on hand during some part of the open season. Season dates this year are October 20 to December 13, inclusive. This year's duck flight is expected to surpass any seen in many years. An unusually large breeding population returned to the northern breeding grounds last spring, and the birds were favored with ideal weather conditions during their nesting period this summer.

Plan Sale Of Arlington Farms Estate; Polo Team Disbanded

Announcement last week that Len Bernard Sr., plans to sell his 283-acre Arlington Farms estate will bring to a close the chapter in Libertyville's history when it was known as the "polo capital of the midwest."

Bernard, who brought the game of polo to the general public in this area, is moving to Omaha, Neb., where he has accepted an automobile distributorship serving Iowa and Nebraska. He formerly owned an auto agency in Evanston.

VALUED AT more than a quarter million dollars, Arlington Farms includes five polo fields, two residences (one a swank 11-room home with six baths), a club house, tennis courts, stables for 60 horses, a deer park, and acres of farmland.

Among prospective purchasers are a religious order, a school and several commercial firms interested in the estate for recreational purposes.

Bernard first located near Libertyville in 1945 when he purchased the farm of Ed White, then being used as a training camp for wrestlers. He gradually purchased surrounding property to bring Arlington Farms to its present size.

AN ACTIVE polo player since 1935, Bernard first brought the game to Libertyville in 1947, and the formation of the Arlington Farms team. In order to further his ambition to bring polo to the public, he underwrote practically all expenses, the only return coming from paid admission at games.

For several years, Len, Sr., a five-goal player himself, captained the local polo squad. Others in the family who have shown skill at the sport are Charles Bernard Jr., 23, a nephew, who is serving in the air force and has played with the championship University of Miami team, and Len, Jr., 14, who is just beginnig to play.

Before coming to Libertyville, Bernard had owner two other estates bearing the name "Arlington Farms"—one at Arlington Heights, and the other at Bristol, Wis.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

A deal on Alaskan pulpwood that will not be used to solve the critical newsprint situation is being eyed in Washington closely.

The history of the situation is this. For many, many years there have been frequent attempts to get a newsprint industry started in Alaska.

However, the dense forests which cover a substantial portion of Alaska's half million square miles are under control of the Interior Department and the Forestry service.

C. W. Harder

Because of this, it has been impossible to get permission to cut pulpwood in Alaska. As a matter of fact, this is one of the issues involved in the drive for Alaskan statehood.

What further complicates the picture is the fact that the Alaskan forests furnish the same kind of timber that the Canadian newsprint producers utilize.

However, at long last, a pulp plant is being built near Ketchikan, Alaska. The site is an ideal one. Timber cut on the slopes can be slid into salt water channels for towing to the mill.

This mill will produce 100,000 tons of pulp per year. But it will not be used to alleviate the newsprint shortage which has resulted in newspaper publishers all over the country being obliged to pay Canadian producers 150% more for newsprint.

* * *

The entire output of the mill will be used for the production of cellophane and rayon. Thus the hold that the Canadian newsprint industry exercises over the free American press will not be diminished.

The entire set up of the deal is causing officials who have been closely following the investigations of the newsprint situation by the Senate Small Business Committee, to scrutinize the details.

The mill will be operated by the Ketchikan Pulp Company, and the stock of this company is jointly owned by American Viscose Corporation and the Puget Sound Pulp & Timber Co.

Among the questions raised by this move are these:

If Washington bureaucrats have held the vast Alaskan timberlands sacred for so long, why now do they release a big share of this timber for cellophane.

Another question is this.

The new mill is being financed by a $36 million public bond issue. If cellophane is worth this type of big financing, why is it not even more feasible to produce newsprint at a price that will be fair to the last major bulwark of independent American enterprise, the nation's weekly newspapers.

The State Department has already taken a stand against solving the problem.

Now there is a determination in many quarters in Washington to smoke out what, if any, high level, secret agreements have been entered into regarding the nation's newsprint supply. The current trend toward increasing mortalities among independent newspapers, plus the building of more big metropolitan newspapers chains, and the growth of giant networks in radio and TV controlled by a handful of men dependent on a revokable license from a Washington bureau, is causing wonder. If this trend continues, there will soon be no more effective independent expressions of thought remaining.

Manners, Not Defects Cause Most Accidents

The great majority of accidents arise, not from mechanical defect, nor from lack of driving knowledge or skill, but from the frame of mind of the driver or drivers. It is proven time and time again, that accident involved drivers knew the safe way; for when they write the report their own operation is described in a manner, which, if true, would have made the accident impossible.

Speeding, ill temper, exhibitionism, contesting of right of way, "get-evenness" and bullying of pedestrians are indelible marks of immaturity. Real skill and maturity lies in making sure that one's social manners are not left at the curbside, and in full appreciation of the responsibilities involved in the operation of a motor vehicle.

Here are a few of the many rules which a skilled and mature driver will not only know, he will observe:

1. HE WILL CHECK his car for mechanical defects before trips, and will not ride "just a day or so more" with brakes requiring adjustment, treadless tires; faulty lights or other defects.

2. He will observe the speed limits as maximum, and will revise his speed downward as weather, road and traffic conditions indicate.

3. He will practice "defensive driving"; he will be prepared for the unpredictable actions of others; a clear record is his goal.

4. He will use hand signals or signal devices properly and faithfully, but he also will slow down slowly and make turns properly.

5. HE WILL NOT contest the right of way with anything from a toddler to the tractor-trailer. If accidents there must be, it will have to happen with someone else.

6. He will maintain a safe speed-distance ratio between his car and the car ahead.

7. He will overtake and pass only when safe and only when legal.

8. He will exercise the most extreme care with regard to pedestrians, children and school buses.

9. He will be guided by the principle that the use of streets and highways is a co-operative, not a competitive privilege, and he will set an example of courtesy to all under all circumstances.

Bandits Take $6,000 From Omar Bakery

Three masked bandits staged a carefully-timed holdup at Omar bakery, north of Libertyville, and carted away $5,921.54 in cash and checks.

Arthur Finley of Wauconda, a cashier, was alone in the plant at about 10 p. m. Saturday, preparing the bank deposit. He had just finished bundling the money and sealing it in bags, when three men entered from the rear of the building, wielding guns.

The trio tied Finley's hands and legs and placed him on the floor, face down, instructing him to lay on the floor for 25 minutes before calling the police. They loaded the money into Finley's car and made their escape. Police later found the auto abandoned on Bush rd.

Shopping Column

If you've ever wished for a light in some dark closet, here's a new closet light you won't want to miss.

This pre-wired, easy-to-install light attaches to the door frame so that it goes on automatically when the door is opened and off when it is closed.

The heavy-guage metal bracket holds the socket well out from the woodwork to allow adequate clearance for the bulb. The socket itself is molded of smart ivory plastic to harmonize with even the lightest colored finishes.

Simple to install, the closet light just screws into place on the door frame, and then plugs into the nearest electrical outlet.

Start Masonry Wall Below Frost Line

In building a garden wall or other structures, concrete and cinder blocks must be laid on a solid footing of concrete extending well below the frost line. There is danger of the wall buckling or heaving because of frost if this is not done.

Quick Dessert

Broil some canned grapefruit segments with your next broiled dinner for a quick dsesert. Use ¼ cup of the juice from the grapefruit mixed with a dash of nutmeg, cloves and ¼ cup brown sugar. Dot the grapefruit butter with this as well as the sugar mixture and broil about 6 minutes.

Adept Thinning Will Improve Woodland Sites

Wooded lots can be improved, and now's a good time to do it. If your home is ideally located in a woodland glen or if you're planning to build on a naturally wooded site, you can improve on nature.

Frequently, there are more trees and undergrowth than desired. In late summer or early fall, you can determine what plant life is unwanted, advises P. E. Hudson, field representative of the Davey tree expert company. Foliage and plants are then at full growth.

It is esaier to judge for the individuual plot the extent of cutting required in relation to sunlight and cooling breezes. Soils also are firm. This means there will be less damage to developed areas. However, few home owners are qualified to expertly judge which are the more desirable trees or shrubs. If left to their own devices, they too often thin out desirable species and leave others that should be eliminated.

Wooded areas are becoming scarcer in the home building boom. Their proper care and development for full beauty therefore is increasingly important. Once your wooded lot has been converted to residential purposes, nature loses control and you must take over.

You will be well advised to consult a landscape architect or tree expert, for he has the skill and equipment to enhance the beauty of your woodland property. He can determine the extent of desirable changes and suggest proper treatment where necessary. For instance, woodland trees near close-cropped lawns will need annual care during the transition period from wild to domestic landscape attractions.

Trees left in a semi-wild state may continue to flourish with only occasional attention.

Completes 30 Years With Public Service

B. Olmstead

Benjamin Olmstead, R. 2, Arlington Heights, celebrated his 30th anniversary with the Public Service company of Northern Illinois last week end, Sept. 21. Olmstead, who started in the electric operating department in Evanston in 1922, has served in various capacities during his utility career. His headquarters since 1944 has been in Des Plaines.

An avid bowler, Olmstead has been active in different bowling leagues in this area for the past 20 years. He is a member of the American Legion Post in Des Plaines.

A daughter, Patricia May, who lives at home, is employed by the North Western Railroad in Chicago.

The Olmsteads recently returned from a trip to Wichita Falls, Texas, where they visited their son, Benjamin Harry, who is in the Army Air Corps stationed at Sheppard Field.

National Kids' Day

Whereas the citizens of Arlington Heights are vitally interested in our youth and recognize the importance of adult participation in matters pertaining to the welfare of our children,

Whereas one of the principle tasks facing our nation and our community today is the building of our youth into useful and honorable citizens,

Whereas it is fitting that we make every effort to keep all children from being prey to any form of delinquency and to foster all good and proper endeavors aimed at helping our youth to achieve the benefits offered by the American way of life,

Whereas through the joint efforts of Kiwanis International and the National Kids' Day Foundation as represented by our local Kiwanis Club, a day has been set aside to focus attention upon the problems and the accomplishments of youth throughout the forty-eight states at both a national and community level,

Whereas the purpose of the day is to provide wherever possible, assistance in helping underprivileged children to enjoy some of the benefits normally accruing to boys and girls in more fortunate circumstances,

Now, therefore, I Albert Goedke by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the Village of Arlington Heights, do hereby designate Saturday, September 27, as National Kids' Day in Arlington Heights and do call upon all citizens to support the objectives of this day and to cooperate to the best of their abilities in making the event a success,

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Village of Arlington Heights to be affixed this 22nd day of September in the year of our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-two. Albert W. Goedke.

Birds Win Awards

Ralph Stippick and Donald Kiehl, Arlington Heights, entered seven parrakeets in the Illinois Budgerigar Society third annual show at Garfield Park, September 20-21.

They won three first awards, one second and one third, besides receiving a trophy for the best bird in one of the classes.

Fund For Slain Cop's Widow $13,000

The Harry W. Bending, Jr. trust fund totaled some $13,000 this week. $10,750 of the sum is in the hands of the Chicago Title & Trust Co., fund depository. The remainder is made up of large contributions.

Arlington Man To Be Cancer Fund Speaker

Tom H. Hildebrand, 527 Mayfair, Arlington Heights, will be one of the featured speakers on the program of the sixth annual conference to be held October 1, 2 and 3, by the American cancer society, Illinois division.

Speaking to over 350 key volunteer workers during the morning session, October 1, Hildebrand will explain the philosophy and program of the society's April fund-raising campaign. The title of his speech is "The 1952 Cancer Crusade."

Hildebrand is well-known for his career as an executive at International Harvester company, where he has had a continuous service record since 1923, a third generation employee.

Well-known, too, for his outstanding volunteer participation with the American cancer society, Hildebrand this year directed the April drive to raise one million dollars for cancer control in Illinois. He had previously participated in the 1950 and 1951 cancer crusades as chairman of division "B" of the trades and industries division. This year, Hildebrand did an outstanding job of organizing the entire state-wide fund raising drive. Although the official audit has not yet been completed, contributions to date total $921,078, a concrete example of public interest in the fight against cancer.

Home Ec Expert Gives Cooking Demonstration To High School Pupils

If the odors of cooking had filled the halls of the Arlington Heights high school this week as they used to in the old building, Mary Handlin might have needed to defend her kitchens from those with big appetites.

The originator of delightful odors was Mary Campbell, home economics expert for the Public Service company. Monday and Tuesday she demonstrated for the classes the use of the various types of gas and electric stoves in the new kitchens. Featured in the demonstrations were the uses of different types of burners, broilers and ovens. A complete meal was prepared in 30 minutes. One of the "stunts" was the baking of apples on top of the stove.

Laundry machines and their operation were demonstrated by Miss Campbell Wednesday.

"East of Eden," by John Steinbeck: One of the remarkable qualities of John Steinbeck as an author is that he never goes over the same ground twice. "East of Eden," is an American saga, running in time from the Civil War to the First World War, in place from a Connecticut farm to a California valley.

Essentially, it is the story of one family, the Trasks—a father and his twin sons and their errant mother. What happens to the Trasks, against the background of what is happening to others, gives the book its story telling drive and also its human significance. The scope of "East of Eden" can hardly be suggested by an outline of the story. The book is among the latest best sellers now on your library rental shelf.

"Reunion On The Wabash," by Sterling North: The author writes, "Reunion On The Wabash is the result of five long years of research, many trips back to the Wabash to verify details, and a lifetime spent living and absorbing Midwestern color. It is a book seething with characters and plot, but also, I think, symbolic. Reunion Meadow at the Sycamores was for ten years (until the last census) the population center of America. It is also half way between Lake Superior and the Gulf of Mexico. Thus the novel, quite literally comes from the heart of America."

"The Green Land" is Zola Ross' most stirring and unusual story of the winning of the West —the building of the first railroad into Washington—and her most moving, appealing and unexpected love story. The author brings together her feeling for pioneers, railroads and the Puget Sound country. The combination has given her the power to produce a stirring story of pioneer development and a deply moving love story.

"Smith's London Journal": A new H. Allen Smith emerges with the publication of this hilarious —and penetrating—account of his recent trip to London.

John Moore's latest novel, Dance and Skylark," is a wonderfully apt title for this rollicking story of a modern English village laboring to bring forth a pageant commemorating its history, and bursting at the seams with the effort. Love is the dominant note throughout, taking its cue from the breath of an English Spring with its cottages, shops, and even a balloon factory. The story is presented with skill and charm, and a deep affection.

MORNING LIGHT AWAKEN YOU?

Sleeping comfort is, naturally, the essential requirement in the bedroom. The proper furniture arrangement—especially as regards light and glare—can add immeasureably to the room's comfort. Beds placed so that occupants face the early morning light are a poor arrangement, for most folks are sensitive to glare, and consequently rest is disturbed.

ELIMINATE GLARE . . .

. . . by placing beds so that the heads get as little early morning glare as possible. You'll have to experiment a little to determine which arrangement fits your room best. If the only place a bed fits is facing a window, then a tall decorative screen placed at the foot of the bed may be the solution.

For more helpful ideas that will make your home more comfortable and livable, come in and have a talk with our friendly staff. We're always happy to see you.

Our showrooms are brim full of lovely new bedroom furnishings — everything from beds to bolsters. We have an interesting new Modern grouping which includes headboards with book shelf space, niches for radio, etc. See them today.

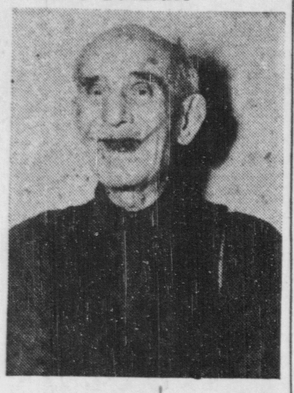

A roomy, comfortable chair is a "must" in a well-appointed bedroom. See our new group of slipper chairs—and small-scaled lounge chairs today. Lovely decorator colors and styles in a variety of coverings. More-for-your-money values at our low budget prices.

We aim, always, to give you the newest and best furniture available at modest prices. Come in and see our wide assortment — new selections of lovely pieces for every room in your home. Every piece has been careful chosen for beauty, utility and economy.

Toast Every Day

Toast is an every day affair, so make it deluxe every once in awhile. Spread toast slices with blended butter and brown sugar, then top with chopped pecans and place under broiler for about five minutes.

About Your Health

Of all conditions that give displeasure to others, unpleasant body odors are the chief offenders. Bad manners, or lack of the social graces, can often be overlooked, but unpleasant body odors cannot. Why, you ask? Because, unless some disease exists, unpleasant body odors can be controlled without medical supervision if the offender paid everyday attention to good hygiene.

The sweat glands of the body, working normally, produce perspiration, which is from 98 to 99 per cent water. In hot weather or during excessive exercise, more perspiration is excreted by the sweat glands through the skin. This is important in regulating the heat of the body. Unpleasant body odor, medically called bromhidrosis, stemming from two Greek words meaning stench and sweat, is caused by the accumulation of excretions of the skin which undergo chemical changes.

BECAUSE THE highly, unpleasant odor is so noticeable, it is difficult for the person offending to be unaware that he "smells." A defect in his own smelling device could be the only reason. For this reason, it is hard to understand why so many people, day after day and night after night, persist in giving this odoriferous unpleasantness to others.

In these days of good sanitation, excellent bathing facilities, and deodorants galore, there is no excuse for not ridding the boy of these distasteful odors. Because the skin and clothing retain the odor, daily bathing, frequent laundering and change in linen are essential. Particular attention must be given to the underarm areas, the groin and the feet. Keeping the body clean is a must in good grooming. Washing the hair frequently, particularly in hot weather, is another must. Clothes need not be expensive, but there is no excuse for not keeping them clean.

THERE ARE conditions that cause excessive perspiration which stem from underlying factors, such as nervous and emotional states. These, of course, are a medical problem.

Another unpleasant odor emitted from the body is "bad breath" or halitosis. This condition stems from many causes, each of which should be investigated and corrected. Constipation may be a factor. Improper mouth hygiene, defective teeth, infection of the throat, tonsils and sinuses are all involved.

Continue Hearing

The case before Judge Haas regarding the petition which took away part of Public Service from our district has been continued again, to October 28. The oppossing attorneys claim it will take them at least a day and a half to present their case. This reporter wonders if they can present arguments enough to justify robbing Peter to pay Paul in that length of time. The amount District 26 lost this year from the section east of Rand rd. (not in Mt. Prospect) would have been almost enough to pay the salary of another teacher.

The Friendly club are sponsoring their annual fund-raising party this Friday at the Community house at 8:00 p.m. and extend an invitation to everyone to attend. This project is entirely for the under-privileged and can use your support wholeheartedly. Mrs. Lu Zeravich is in charge of the program.

Johnny Seilheimer celebrated his fourth birthday Tuesday with family and friends.

For the benefit of those parents who did not attend the school board meeting: In order to provide the students of Feehanville with bus transportation the schedule that has been arranged will have to be followed at least for this year. It would be good to remember that the board of directors have tried their best to provide the best for all children at the school. There must be co-operation on the part of the parents. Our school was quite fortunate in acquiring this new bus service and is only getting it because of the contract with the Arlington Heights high school. Our own contract would not be big enough to get any individual company.

They will live at Norfolk, Va., where the groom is stationed with the navy.

Virginia Sikorski And James Clarke Are Wed

Five attendants preceded Miss Virginia Sikorski down the aisle of St. James Catholic church, Arlington Heights, when she became the bride of James R. Clarke, son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Clarke of Park Ridge.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Sikorski of Arlington Heights.

Chaplain John Wissing of Great Lakes Training Station, friend of the family, officiated at the double ring ceremony held September 6 at 11 a.m. Rev. George Stier and Rev. Robert Reichter assisted at the nuptial high mass.

Robert Clarke of Arlington Heights was the soloist, and Sister Amabillia, the organist. Baskets of chrysanthemums, fuji mums, gladioli and palms decorated the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white gown of imported Italian bombazine fashioned with a fitted bodice, round neckline and long pointed sleeves. Both the neckline and sleeves were trimmed with embroidered seed pearls and iridescent white shells. There were tiny pleats all around the very full skirt, which ended in a cathedral train. Her fingertip length veil was held in place by a custom made scalloped tiara of pleated bombazine embroidered with seed pearls and irridescent white shells. She carried a bouquet of three white orchids surrounded by stephanotis.

Mrs. Claude Providenza of Burlingame, Cal., sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. Du Bois—The Drake

Miss Lorraine Sikorski of San Francisco, Cal., sister of the bride, Miss Edwina McDermott of Idaho Falls, Idaho, Miss Martha Carter of New York, and Miss Joan Schmidt of La Grange, all college friends of the bride, were the bridesmaids.

All the attendants wore gowns of French blue silk shantung fashioned with halter necklines, full ballerina length skirts and bolero jackets. They carried bouquets of fuji mums with large green leaves.

Robert Lynch of Park Ridge, brother of the groom, was the best man. James and Robert Murphy, both of Chicago, Herbert Weber of Park Ridge and Clifford Nelson of Des Plaines were the ushers.

The mother of the bride wore a dark beige lace dress with brown accessories and an orange orchid corsage, and the groom's mother wore a periwinkle lace dress with pink accessories and an orchid corsage.

A reception and breakfast for 200 guests was held following the ceremony at Brookwood Country club in Addison. Al Melgard was the organist, and Frankie Snyder's orchestra furnished music for dancing. More than 125 guests attended the open house at the home of the bride's parents following the reception.

Following a honeymoon in Florida, the couple will make their home in Elgin.

Music Program To Open Woman's Club Season

MARGO SMITH
Nelidoff Studio

Arlington Heights Woman's club will open the 1952-53 club season October 1 at 1:30 p. m. at the field house, with Mrs. Charles Stadelman, newly elected president, presiding.

The 75 new members will be presented at this meeting by Mrs. Norman W. Crandall, chairman of the membership and courtesy committee.

Featured artists of the afternoon will be an unusual piano duo, Miss Margo Smith and Miss Lillian Waller, who will play duets on one piano from contemporary to Bach, explaining and interpreting the composers as they proceed.

Miss Smith, a resident of Arlington Heights, maintains a studio in the Fine Arts building in Chicago. She has concertized extensively as pianist with the Gaff Ballet throughout the United States and Mexico, and has also accompanied such opera stars as Kirsten Thorborg, Eugene Conley and Josephine Antoine. She is the organist in one of the large Chicago churches and was on the staff of NBC as a duo-pianist for several years.

Miss Waller has appeared as soloist with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra under Frederick Stock, with the Boston Peoples Orchestra, and was the first soloist with the Women's Symphony Orchestra of Chicago. She has also appeared several times in recitals in New York, Chicago and other cities in the middle west.

These two artists are combining their talents in presenting an unusual program of music for one piano four-hands.

The Woman's club Hospitality Chairman, Mrs. John V. Sunkel, has designated Mrs. Harry Balch and Mrs. V. O. Bernthal as tea chairmen for the occasion.

AAUW Regional Workshop To Be Held In Oak Park

Bernice T. Van der Vries, Illinois state representative, seventh district, will be chief speaker at an American Association of University Women regional workshop at Oak Park October 4.

Twenty-five delegates from the northwest suburban branch of AAUW, covering Des Plaines, Park Ridge, Mount Prospect and Arlington Heights, will hear Mrs. Van der Vries urge action on "Illinois Government and the Needs of the People Today."

At the one-day workshop-conference members will find the resources for a working program for every branch, regardless of size or location.

As an added attraction at the Oak Park-River Forest meeting, Mrs. Ralph B. Alspaugh, AAUW national vice-president from the northeast central region, will discuss "AAUW and the Challenges of Today."

Problem clinics will provide training and source material in administration, creative arts, education, fellowship, historians, international relations, legislation, membership, publicity, social studies, status of women, recent graduates, youth guidance and communications.

Presenting The Younger Generation

Rutledge studio

Bit of mischief

This first cherubic little fellow is Michael Lee Willert, blond and brown eyed 10½ month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Willert of 165 S. Brockway, Palatine.

Mike may be tiny, but he rates an "A" at tearing the house apart. "He is just about walking," said Mrs. Willert, "and prefers pots and pans to his toys."

Mrs. Emma Willert of Arlington Heights and Mr. and Mrs. John Baril of Palatine are the grandparents.

Half 'n half

Half boy play and half girl play is the schedule that suits this litle Miss best. She is Sharon Lou Gintz, 23 month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gintz of 42 W. Washington st., Palatine. Sharon has light brown hair and blue eyes.

With Sharon it is doll play half of the time and a rousing game of Indians and cowboys the rest of the time. "She loves to run with the boys and has her own gun," stated Mrs. Gintz.

Grandparents of Sharon are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Flentge of Palatine and Mr. Fred Gintz of Chicago.

Hammers and nails

Smiling broadly from the next picture is Dale Urbanowicz and his sister, Sharon. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. James Urbanowicz of 717 N. Hickory, Arlington Heights.

Dale is a blond and blue-eyed 6 year old and a first grader at St. James school. He seems to be following in his father's footsteps. Mr. Urbanowicz is a carpenter and anything in that line is of great interest to his young son.

Sister Sharon is a blond and blue-eyed 5 year old. She is a real little school girl, just loving her kindergarten class at the North school.

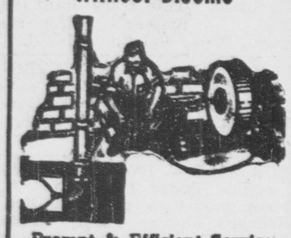

Mrs. Ethel Richardson of El Paso, Texas, and Mrs. Julia Urban of Chicago are the grandmothers of Dale and Sharon.

Annual Trek Through Historic Homes In Galena This Week End

It was 1839 when William Fiddick, newly arrived from England, started a modest dry goods store, dealing exclusively in cloths, carpets, boots and shoes, furs and feathers. In 1857 he had acquired such a handsome competency from furs and feathers, et al, that he and his wife acquired a lot on High st. in the thriving metropolis of Galena, Ill., and built thereon a $16,000 Victorian Mansion, now known as the Judge Gundry home on the hilltop.

This eleven-room house and unique outbuildings, including a washhouse and two-story brick coachhouse, will be open to the public September 27 and 28 for the third Tour Historic Galena Homes, an annual Galena pilgrimage of eight privately owned homes sponsored by members of the Guild of the First Presbyterian church.

FROM THE MOMENT one climbs the steep steps and passes through the clanging iron gates to the Gundry home the world of yesterday closes round one. The double-size entrance doors swing open to a huge center hall from which ascends a three story winding staircase. To the right is a traditional Victorian Parlor, highlighted with a tall pier glass whose wide cornices extend over tall narrow windows.

Reflected in this sparkling mirror is a head-high fireplace with Italian Mantel on which rests an ormolu clock and matching vases, authentically dating from 1845. This room is highlighted by the original chandelier imbedded in an ornate papier-mache medallion, one of the few preserved in the midwest.

Men and women dressed in costumes resurrected from attic and storeroom trunks of their forebears will guide visitors through eight privately-owned homes in Galena the last weekend in September. Among the homes open will be the Victorian mansion described above; a perfect example of steamboat Gothic architecture; a double miner's cottage; and such historically famous houses as the one the U. S. Grants lived in before the war between the States; the columned home of politically sagacious Elihu B. Washburne, was called to the colors for the alte Minister to France; and the architecturally perfect General John E. Smith home.

Maintenance Loans Hit High Record For Half Of 1952

Home maintenance and repair loans insured by the federal housing administration under its Title I program leaped to a record high of $450,390,159 for the first six months of 1952. This compares to $304,947,339 for a similar period in 1951, the previous record year.

The volume of Title I loans is taken as an indication of the total amount of money spent annually for home modernization. This is estimated at $3,000,000,000 for last year.

The FHA insures loans for both materials and labor. For example, money can be borrowed to buy asphalt shingles for reroofing and to pay for application. Labor costs are kept at a minimum because asphalt shingles can be applied over most old roofing.

Northwest Symphony Orchestra Changes Opening Rehearsal

In deference to the presentation of the new Bible to the religious world September 30, the Northwest Symphony orchestra is postponing its opening rehearsal until October 7. Rehearsals will be held at Maine township high school, Des Plaines.

The symphony, now being organized, will be under the conductorship of Perry Crafton, first violinist with the Chicago Symphony orchsetra. Membership is growing, but there is still a special need for violins, violas, oboes and French horns.

Those interested in the new orchestra may call Russell Beck-

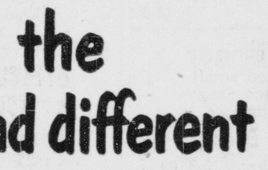

Choppers Flood Judge's Office: Culprit Assessed $25 Fine

Des Plaines police arrested Frank Richardson Sept. 13 for speeding, trying to escape police, going through a couple of stop signs and then when locked up having his false teeth enter the refuse bowl in the cell causing a flood. The teeth not only blocked the city hall's disposal system in the police cell block but caused a flood in the Mayor's office, Judge Sengstock's office, the police station, and the radio room.

When Judge Sengstock heard the testumony or now Richardson drove and attempted to escape after police arrested him, and then was recaptured and brought into the station at the point of a gun, he merely listened.

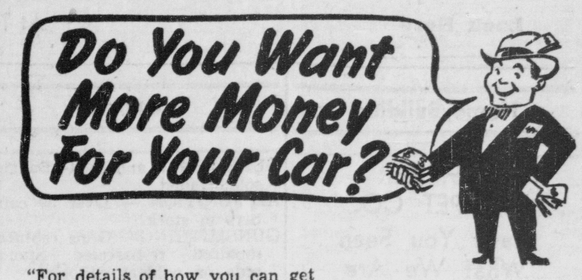

But when it was disclosed that Richardson's teeth were the cause of the flood that ruined the stationery in his office, he sat up, looked angrily at Richardson and said, "that little escapade will cost you $25 and $5 costs."

AN EDITORIAL

The Core of Freedom

Freedom may mean a number of things to an individual. It may be that it is a complex of ideas and therefor difficult to define in any final way. But we believe that there are two things that must ultimately be included in any definition, be it final or provisional.

The first is the free acceptance and exercise of the responsibilities of citizenship.

The second is the jealous guardianship, propagation, and exercise of the art of free discussion.

These may be said to be the core of freedom. They are not separable ideas. They are closely linked.

This generation of Americans has had thrust upon it the responsibility for decisions whose grave import should be too well known to need repeating. Time alone will reveal whether our decisions prove wise and noble.

In these crucial times we may turn to the core of our freedom for guidance. We can do this in full trust and confidence.

This fall, The World Politics Program begins its sixth year of community discussion meetings. One of these groups will meet in Arlington Heights. It is a medium which expresses and preserves the core of freedom. It is a medium whereby free citizens may develop an objective, analytical approach to one of the critical questions of our time: the role of the United States in world affairs. This is as it should be, for it is the nature, individual judgement of each person that can best serve our present needs. affairs. This is as it should be, for it is the mature, individual uals who reside, in the great majority of cases, in the community where the group meets. They are not experts. The program offers no solutions. It pursues no partisan path. It shuns directional bias as well as unfounded opinion or prejudice.

The World Politics Program is jointly sponsored in the Chicago area by University College, The University of Chicago and the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations. The funds for its support are derived from the American Foundation for Political Education. And the latter organization is supported by the Fund for Adult Education whose funds come from a remarkable example of private enterprise—The Ford Foundation.

The World Politics Program is a medium that will insure the health and vitality of the core of freedom.

Proposed Changes In Revenue Amendment Before Voters Nov. 4

The first of four articles covering the proposed amendment to the Illinois constitution appears on this page. PADDOCK PUBLICATIONS will present both sides of the question. This week appears the background behind the legislation that has placed the amendments upon the ballot.

Changes in the Revenue Article, Article IX of the Illinois Constitution, such as those to be voted upon November 4th, have been sought for many years. The Constitution was written in 1870 when Illinois was an agricultural state. Most of a man's property was in land, tools, buildings, furniture. It was easy to see—therefore, a simple measure of his ability to pay taxes.

In the 82 years since then Illinois has changed into a complex mixture of agriculture and industry. Many of its people now live in apartments in the growing towns and cities. Much of their property, some say 69% of the state's taxable resources, lies in stocks, bonds, and bank accounts. These are called "intangibles" because the assessor can't see them.

THE 1870 CONSTITUTION clearly says that these intangibles shall be taxed at same rates as the tangibles—farms, real estate, etc. In some instances, this would equal or even exceed the income from this personal property. So it isn't declared. Frequently, it "leaves the state" on April 1st, returning April 2nd. This leaves the greatest tax burden upon real estate which the assessor sees, which can't take flight.

This is one of the major inequities of the present Article IX which citizens of Illinois have tried to correct since 1912. The amending process of the Constitution has been so difficult that very little could happen until the Gateway Amendment was passed in November 1950. This amendment to Article IX is one of the first efforts to update the Constitution piece by piece under Gateway.

GATEWAY means that three articles of the Constitution may be amended in one general election; there will be four proposals on the blue ballot November 4th, but two of them amend Article X. The consent of 2/3s of those voting on any proposal will pass it instead of the former 2/3s of those voting in the whole election. These propositions appear on a blue ballot which must be returned to the judge, whether voted or not, who will put it in the box before accepting the candidates' ballot. If defeated, a proposal may not come up again for four years.

Upon adoption of Gateway two years ago, the General Assembly in SJR 17 provided for the appointment of a joint legislative committee to draft an amendment to the Revenue Article. Rep. W. Russell Arrington of Evanston was elected chairman. After public hearings and suggested drafts, HJR 40—these revisions—were passed by both houses of the General Assembly and is now submitted to the voters in the November 4th election.

It would amend Sections 1, 2, 3, 9 and 10; repeal 13, Section 1 will be discussed next week.

Marshall Field Sport Paradise Opens Next Month

Construction is nearing completion on Fieldale Farm, Marshall Field & Company's 192-acre farm for sportsmen gunners, the first of its kind anywhere.

Fieldale Farm is scheduled to open in mid-October. Located approximately 30 miles northwest of Chicago on Higgins rd., west of Jones rd., the farm will feature 21 fields that simulate all types of game shooting.

Many of the games under construction are entirely new, specially designed to develop the skill of the sportsman gunner, according to Charles P. Hunter of Field's. There will be fields to train the hunter for duck shooting in the open and in the woods. Also included will be grouse and woodcock ranges, a quail shoot and a new game called "powder pigeon."

Work on eight skeet and trap shooting fields is nearly finished. The targets on these fields will all be electrically operated from remote control towers.

Thirteen different fields can be use simultaneously.

Firearms supervision and instruction will also be available, with emphasis on safety and gun etiquette. There will be no wild life shooting, according to Mr. Hunter.

Existing buildings on the property are being remodeled to include a gun shop, a large shelter house at the edge of the skeet and trap shooting fields, and a log lodge complete with facilities for informal food service.

Restoration of cover for wild life will be carried out in cooperation with the Illinois state department of conservation.

THE FENCE POST

Letters to the Fence Post should be short and concise. All letters must be signed, though name will be withheld if desired. Address Fence Post, Paddock Publications, Inc., Arlington Heights, Ill.

Carnivals

I read in last week's Arlington Herald that the Arlington park board is hesitant in granting the American Legion's request for permission to use some of the park grounds for its carnival next 4th of July. The American Legion carnival is, to my mind, a traditional affair and just about everybody I know considers it worthwhile and looks forward to it from year to year. This may also be said for the VFW and Firemen's carnivals.

The American Legion post in Arlington Heights apparently has been trying to develop a real program of civic activity. I am not a member of the Legion, but I do know some of the post members, and I have had occasion to see what they have done.

The revival of the American Legion junior baseball team in Arlington Heights is a service to all young people of our community. Among other things, I know that the Legion sent two boys to Boys State at Springfield to learn the operation of government. This sort of thing should be supported, and if it helps the Legion conduct their carnival I think the park board should cooperate with them. Certainly the children have a great deal of fun and entertainment, both at the carnival and at the Legion's Kiddie Day, and, of course, we all love a parade.

Will Rogers

Over the week end I saw a movie entitled "The Will Roger's Story." Always having been an admirer of the cowboy philosopher during the 20's and 30's, I remember many daily and even weekly newspapers published his syndicated columns in "plate" form until his untimely passing on in 1935.

Sometimes I get to wondering what would be his comments on present day affairs. I can only guess what might appear in those columns. Perhaps one like as follows:

"I reckon this may be a fork in the road. I always said we should look out for America first and small nations should be let alone to work out their own destinies. Seems like under the democratic regime a lot of building has been goin' on for our own citizens as well as meetin' places for furriners. Hope it'll be a nice country to live in when they get finished."

Arthur Brisbane (of about the same era) would certainly say things about the present trend. In his adroit expressions this gentleman of wisdom might speak of how no amendment to the Constitution has ever been repealed. Now it takes a president to do it with our basic law.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

Next Thursday we set aside as fire prevention day. Most of us will give it a passing thought, then go on throwing lighted matches and burning cigarette butts out car windows into the dry grass along the road. A lot of us will think about cleaning out that inflammable stuff in the attic, going over everything to make sure that nothing combustible is there to catch fire, burst into flame and destroy our property. Most of us will never do it.

And so the merry waste of burning houses, valuable forest preserves and the destruction of the homes and livelihood of animals living in our dwindling forest areas will continue. Crops will be destroyed by prairie fires, grass land needed for their hay and grazing will go up in flames. Lives will be destroyed in burning tenement districts, and flaming hotels. Property damage of more than 500,000,000 dollars will be reported throughout our nation for 1953.

Fire, one of man's most necessary friends, is at the same time one of his worst enemies. Yet, with methods of fire prevention advised today and the caution necessary, fire could be one of the minor destructive forces in our nation.

It would be patriotic for each of us to start today and keep up a constant vigil against fire at home or wherever else we may be. Begin today to check your entire home for possible fire hazards such as bare electric wires, saturated paint rags, dust accumulating in distant corners of the cellar and attic, a faulty heating unit in your garage, paints, turpentine and oil in the proximity of fire, window curtains too close to open gas or electric stoves, defective wiring in floor lamps.

Begin today, and don't stop. Make a regular inspection of your home from garret to basement, and don't forget the garage, at least once each month. Keep to it religiously. Watch your smoking habits—more than one man or women has burned to death going to sleep in bed or in a parlor sofa or chair with a lighted cigarette in his or her mouth.

Let's act now to prevent fires, instead of acting later to put them out.

Hines Lumber Rezoning Defeated

By a 5-0 vote, zoning board of appeals has turned down the request of Herman Seegers on behalf of the Edward Hines lumber company to rezone a five acre tract of land at Golf and Wolf rds to light industrial.

The Hines company had announced its plans to buy the property from Seegers and build a retail store and lumber yard on the site.

The Extinction Of a Species

THE CAROLINA PAROQUET

For several years no one has seen a Carolina Paroquet. It is possible that this pretty green and yellow bird is just as extinct as the Passenger Pigeon. It is just as likely, however, that by wise conservation of our few remaining southern wildernesses, flocks might once again be seen feeding on thistles, their favorite food.

John Lawson, in his "History of Carolina" (published in 1714) writes thus: "The Parrokeetes are of a green colour, and orange-colored half way up their heads. Of these and the Alligators there is none to be found northward of this Province. They visit us first when mulberries are ripe, which fruit they love exceedingly. They peck the apples to eat the kernels, so that the fruit rots and perishes. They are mischievous to orchards. They are often taken alive and become familiar and tame in two days. They have their nests in hollow trees in low swamp ground. They devour the Birch Buds in April, and lie hidden when the weather is frosty and hard."

In 1832 Audubon said that the birds were "lessening in numbers" and in 1900 there were only a few left in Florida where they were once abundant.

In 1889 Dr. Frank M. Chapman reported fifty or more in the southern part of Florida and saw two small flocks near Lake Okeechobee in 1904.

Since then reports of sighting Paroquets came from residents of that area until about 1920.

For years after that the birds were thought to be extinct. But around 1936 a persistant claim was made that a few Paroquets still remained in remote swamps of South Carolina.

Several reasons have led to the near (or complete) exterpiation of these birds. Their conspicuous coloring and flocking habits rendered them an obvious target to gunners which killed them because of the damage that they did to fruit. The drainage and clearing of vast areas of swamps and forests did not help them to survive.

Every true sportsman will aid conservation by observing the hunting laws of his state.

✦ Just Around The Corner ✦

from PATTY McARDLE

Dear Peg:

"A week from Sunday is the day
We'll all go up to the farm and play.
Please bring refreshments just for you
And we will bring the Bar-B-Q!
Leave home by eleven—that's none too soon
To arrive at the farm by twelve o'clock noon.
Now wear old clothes—your "jeans" are fine
And we will have fun come rain or shine.
Please let me know if with us you'll play
A week from Sunday—that's the day!"

So read the invitation (written with white ink on red construction paper and decorated to resemble a bandana) to our annual outing at Manapisu Farm.

In order to have plenty of time to make all the preparations for the party, our little family drove to the farm early Saturday morning. As always, "Children's House" was in readiness for us, so, it was no time at all before "our two bedrooms" "came alive" once more with dress-filled wall racks, baby clothes-filled drawers and suitcase-filled corners.

AS SOON AS we had eaten lunch and put Meagan and Bridget to bed, "Mother" and I drove into Harvard to do our "grocering." Although we were in a hurry to get back and start the Bar-B-Q (to be tasty it should cook for quite a while, you know) we took time to visit an attractive, small gift shop just outside of town, which I hadn't seen before. I was glad we did, because, in the herb section, we discovered a jar of herbs, which neither of us knew about, to be used in Bar-B-Q sauce. Our purchase made, we hurried back to the farm, where, in little "Children's House" kitchen, I promptly put the seven pound pot roast on to cook while I prepared the ingredients for the sauce.

Try this sauce sometime, Peg, you'll get nothing but raves! For about twenty people, I boiled together for twenty minutes: 4 bottles of catsup, 6 tbls. prepared mustard, 6 tbls. brown sugar, 6 tbls. butter, 3 tbls. Worchestershire sauce, 2 stalks of celery, 3 green peppers and 4 onions. Then I added my Bar-B-Q herbs and a little Tabasco sauce to taste. After the meat had simmered slowly for about five or six hours, I cut the fat off and shredded it into the sauce. The whole combination then simmered slowly (with frequent stirrings!) about four hours.

LOOKING OUT of the east windows early Sunday morning, I was distressed to see an overcast sky. However, by the time we had hidden the objects for our hunting game and made flower arrangements of multi-colored zinnias, lacy, white petunias and greenery, and for the picnic table—huge, golden sunflowers and evergreens in a shiny, coal black, iron kettle, the sun was shining brightly.

The first of our friends started arriving around noon. Before long we were all assembled in the yard and I handed to each couple a list (again, verses in white ink on red paper) of things to be found. The object of the game was to find the items, record their exact locations—leaving the items in their hiding places, and bring the information back to me as quickly as possible. The two line verses told what was to be found and a clue to the hiding place:

"I won't say—but Jacob could tell
Just where to find an old cow bell."

(Naturally, my dear, behind the ladder in the barn!)

BY THE TIME the game was over, we were all quite ready for the Bar-B-Q and potato salad, which I served in little baskets lined with wax paper. ("Mother's" bandana napkins added a festive touch.)

Next on our program for the day was a hay-rack ride around the countryside—our city friends enjoyed this immensely. Upon our return to the farm, a baseball game was organized and an archery and croquet tournament got under way.

It's obvious that we don't let our friends relax much when we get them to the farm for a day—so, you can imagine, as soon as we had finished an evening supper of sandwiches and coffee, they were ready to climb into their cars and start for home and bed.

I felt that our friends enjoyed the day very much, however, I'm certain that Bob and I—as the planners and organizers—had the most fun of all!

My love,
Patty.

NEWS FOR THE FARMER

Carl F. Mees — Adviser and Editor

Fall Is Best Time To Make Your Soil Tests

"Test your soil—don't guess" is today's money-making suggestion offered to farmers by Farm Adviser Carl F. Mees.

Mees says fall is the best time to make the tests, lists these advantages in testing soil:

1. A farmer finds out whether his land needs limestone, phosphate, and potash, and how much to apply per acre.

2. Soil tests tell him whether or not he can expect a good stand of legumes and grasses, which are the key crops for a good soil conservation program.

3.TESTED SOIL, with needed plant food added, boosts farm income through higher crop yields and lower production costs.

4. Tests often save money by avoiding over-application of fertilizers. Mees says it's a mistake to wait until spring to have soil tested. Limestone and rock phosphate should be applied at least six months before clovers are seeded. Fall application will make these plant foods available to seedlings next spring. Besides, he adds, weather and soil conditions are better for taking samples in the fall than in the spring.

Farmers interested in having soil tests made this fall should contact farm adviser Mees for instructions for taking samples.

Taft To Speak Oct. 2 At Crystal Lake

The itinerary of Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, who will campaign in the 14th congressional district Tuesday, Oct. 7, on behalf of the Republican party, has been completed with the announcement he will appear for a brief stop in Crystal Lake at 2:30 p. m. on that day.

See Average Illinois Farm Soybean Prices

The average Illinois farm prices for soybeans for the season from October 1952 to September 1953 should range about $2.90 to $3.00 a bushel, according to a forecast made by G. L. Jordan, University of Illinois farm prices authority.

Speaking at the annual convention of the American Soybean Association at Purdue University, Jordan said his estimate was based on estimated season's average prices of $85 to $90 a ton for soybean meal, bulk, at Decatur, and 13-cent soybean oil at midwestern mills.

"BEANS COULD easily reach present ceiling prices," Jordan said. And he added, "Ceilings on meal, unless raised or removed, will continue to force uneconomical production and distribution of meal."

Oil prices are expected to rise from present levels in spite of some decline in export demand and relatively large storage stocks of lard. The strongest force operating today is an expected all-time high in personal income in this country."

Jordan expects a small increase in the general price level and in prices of most raw materials. Allowing for this and all other influencing circumstances, he estimated the seasonal price pattern by months, barring unpredictable conditions, to be: October, $2.65; November, $2.75; December, $2.85; January, $2.90; February, $2.90; March, $2.95; April, $3; May, $3.10, and June, $3.20.

JORDAN'S RATHER complicated formula for arriving at the Illinois soybean price estimates takes into consideration the basic forces affecting the demand for and supply of protein supplements and edible fats and oils. These forces are:

(1) Personal disposable income in the United States; (2) supplies of major high-protein supplements per grain-consuming animal unit, except horses and mules; (3) supplies of corn per comparable animal unit; and (4) supplies of four edible fats and oils—soybean oil, cottonseed, oil, lard and butter.

There is nothing in the domestic picture which would suggest that soybean prices will drop to the loan level, at least for more than a few weeks, Jordan said. He concluded that if he were raising soybeans this year he would be inclined to hold them at least until January or longer and would expect to get $3 a bushel or more for them.

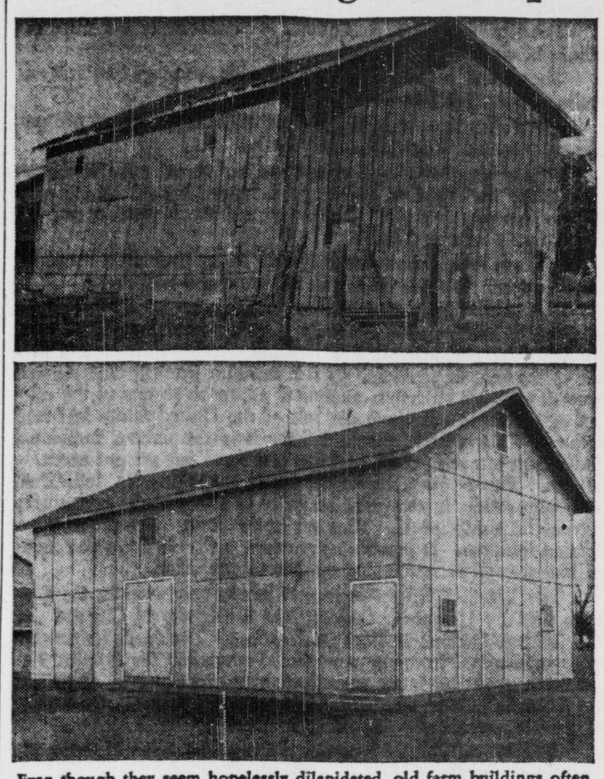

Museum of Science Has Record Attendance

Despite an unusually hot spell of weather and the spell-binding of two national political conventions, Chicago's museum of science and industry proved more popular than ever this summer as attested by its record shattering total of 789,985 visitors during June, July and August.

Highest attendance for a single month was August with 374,015 beating the old record established during the same month last year by more than 80,000. The August record also was considerably greater than the total attendance for the year 1935, which was a shade over 355,000.

This summer's attendance, 64 per cent from out of the state, brought the museum's total attendance as of August 31, to 1,469,981 which is approximately 12 per cent greater than last year's for the same period.

New Barn-Saving Technique

Even though they seem hopelessly dilapidated, old farm buildings often can be given new life by the use of modern materials. These pictures tell the story of the rejuvenation of a 70-year-old barn on a farm near Monica, Ill. Before remodeling, it appeared ready to fall to pieces. The framing lumber was still sound, however, so the owner had the building straightened. He then covered the sidewalls with large sheets of asbestos-cement board. Because asbestos board is fireproof, rotproof and termite-proof, the barn is ready for another lifetime of service—and this time no painting will be needed for preservation. Instructions for this kind of barn re-siding can be obtained free by writing the Asbestos-Cement Products Association, 509 Madison Avenue, New York 22. N.Y.

Here Are Reminders For Cattle Feeders

You Illinois farmers will invest heavily in feeder cattle during September and October. You will want all the information you can get to help figure the best prospective deal for this year. Here are some things to think about.

There are more cattle for feeding this fall than there were a year ago. At the beginning of this year farmers had more of every class of beef animals than they had last year. The number of steers one year old and over increased 20 per cent; calf numbers were up 9 per cent. There were 12 per cent more beef cows and 19 per cent more 1-2 year-old beef-type heifers.

WILL FARMERS cut grain feeding? Some observers figure that fewer cattle will be fed during the next 12 months than during the past 12. They argue that there will be cutbacks in Iowa and in some western states. They say Iowa farmers have plenty of crib space and will have high-quality corn; many of them who fed soft corn last year will take a government loan instead of feeding this time.

Some important western and southwestern feeding areas will have empty feedlots this year because their corn and grain-sorghum crops were slashed by drouth. Some of the wheat pasture areas are dry, too, and will not take cattle unless there is more than average rainfall.

MORE BEEF ANYWAY. If farmers cut grain feeding, it will not greatly influence the total supply of beef. That is going to increase even if many feedlots produce only weeds. The reason is that the cattle are already on farms and ranches and will grow every day even if they get no grain. Most of our beef supply comes from cattle that have little or no acquaintance with the feed-trough.

Less feeding could make bigger premium. The principal effect of reduction in grain feeding would be to favor an increased price premium for the higher quality, better finished steers. The largest premiums usually come after small—not large — corn crops.

Increasing marketings of cattle during the next year or two will keep prices below recent levels. However, the reduced costs of feeder cattle will offset at least part of the prospective lower returns from slaughter animals. The greatest advantage may be to the man who buys yearlings and heavier cattle.

ANOTHER advantage this year is that stockers and feeders may carry less flesh than the cattle bought last year. Thus the buyer will have the advantage of both lower prices and lighter weights. Thin cattle make faster and cheaper gains than better fleshed cattle.

It is easy to overlook the importance of the eastern half of the United States in the beef cattle picture. More than one-third of all beef cows are now located there. One of these states, Iowa, ranks second only to Texas in number of cattle and calves. Much-talked-about Florida has 650,000 beef cows. Although that is only 3 per cent of the nation's total, it is more than can be counted in any one of nine different cowboy states. Illinois, with 480,000 beef-type cows, is ahead of seven of the western states.

Profits in Roadside Stand

FARMERS will find it profitable to sell their produce directly to consumers, particularly if they are located adjacent to a well-traveled highway. There, in a roadside stand, they can offer for sale fresh fruit, vegetables, honey, nuts and other products which have an appeal to motorists.

Such a stand can be a steady source of income during the harvest season, whether it is operated daily or only on weekends. Appearance of the stand can spell the difference between a poor or good season, when the receipts are totaled.

A serviceable structure can be built easily by nailing Masonite ¼" Tempered Presdwood to a framework of 2x4-inch lumber spaced 16 inches apart. For the display shelves, it's a good idea also to use Tempered Presdwood, because it can be kept clean easily and won't absorb food odors. It is moisture-resistant, too, and customers won't get splinters when they pick up an item for close inspection.

A let-down front can keep the stand closed securely overnight. Built as suggested, this stand may remain outdoors the year around. It should be given a prime coat of paint and two coats of exterior quality. A well-constructed stand can be built at reasonable cost. It will soon pay for itself and should last many seasons.

Good Time To Renew Wood Fence Post Pointers

The recent shut-down of the steel industries may cause fencing shortages this fall, according to W. L. Meek, University of Illinois forestry specialist.

We're likely to see fewer new steel and more wooden posts.

Meek adds that the naturally durable post is a familiar but fast disappearing sight. Hedge, black locust, red cedar and to a certain extent white oak are all resistant to decay when put into the ground. But since only the heart of these woods is resistant, it's best to use posts that are mostly heartwood.

A SIX-INCH post with two inches of light-colored sapwood will be a four-inch post after a few years of exposure.

One of the best wooden fence posts on the market today is the pressure treated post. Certified preservatives, such as creosote, pentachlorophenol, copper naphthenate, chromated zinc chloride and others, are applied to the different kinds of wood.

Farmers having timber on their farms can cut and treat good posts at home. Or they can cut and haul the posts to a treating plant for custom treating if there is such a plant near by.

PENTACHLOROPHENOL, copper, naphthenate and creosote are recommended by many for home use. As to method of treatment, Meek reports that the cold soaking method is most practical.

For suggestions on using pentachlorophenol, see Circular 636, and for creosoting see mimeograph F114, available at county farm advisers' offices or from Department of Forestry, College of Agriculture, Urbana.

Urges Farmers To Vote Nov. 4

One of the most important jobs that Illinois farmers can do this fall is vote in the general election Nov. 4.

That statement was made by Charles B. Shuman, president of the Illinois agricultural association, as he addressed a meeting of some 75 farm bureau organization directors from throughout the state.

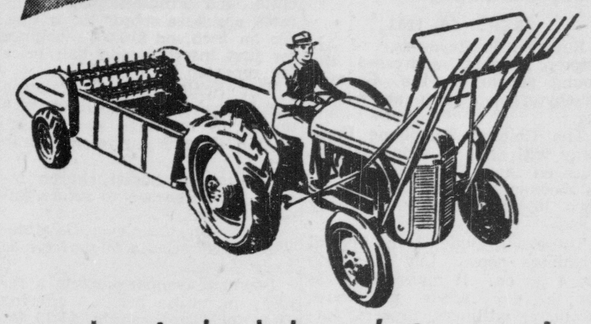

"Rural voters in some areas have become negligent in their duty of going to the polls in fall elections," Shuman said. Often, that is because they are busy harvesting corn or soybeans. But that is not an excuse for failure to vote.

"In the 1948 election, public apathy was such that the president of the United States was elected by only 36.1 per cent of the registered voters. So many persons eligible to vote failed to register that our president in the 1948 election was chosen by 25.6 per cent of the adult population."

Not Many Texans Can Get Sick In Houston

Houston's city health department has been working on a budget that amounts to $1.17 a year per citizen. This is better than New Orleans' 92c per citizen, but far below Washington, D. C.'s $3.36, San Francisco's $2.68 and Seattle's $1.99.

Pape And Guenther Now Dealers In Mellody Feeds

Announcement that Pape and Guenther Bros., Arlington Hts., will now be selling Mellody Feeds was made this week by Art Pape.

Furthermore, Pape and Guenther are inviting farmers of this area to visit the Mellody Mills experimental farm near Libertyville where the feeds are used in the production of high grade dairy cows and laying hens. On the farm are 25,000 laying hens, 1,700 hogs and 650 milking cows.

Over 2,500 acres of alfalfa hay was harvested and dehydrated in the farms own mills this year.

Pape and Guenther Bros., primarily in the hay, straw and grain business since 1946, are now branching into this new field. Mellody Feeds can be purchased in mash, pellet or crumble form.

Illinois Farms Need More Phosphorus

Illinois farmers are way ahead of the nations average when it comes to using phosphate fertilizers. But it's not enough according to a soils scientist from the U. S. department of agriculture.

F. W. Parker, director of soil research for the Department, says that an acre of land needs about 30 pounds of phosphoric acid a year for better than average crop yields. There are 20 pounds of phosphoric acid in 100 pounds of 20 per cent superphosphate. Illinois farmers are applying about 13 pounds a year compared to the national average of nine.

Other countries are way ahead. France uses an average of 15 pounds per acre. Danish farmers use 23 pounds a year; Germans use 26. The United Kingdom averages 32, and Dutch farmers use 48.

The use of phosphate fertilizer is profitable. Parker reports that the average U. S. dollar spent for phosphate fertilizer returns more than four dollars to the farmer.

Only about five to 15 per cent of the actual phosphorus put on soil is ever used by plants, Parker states. A chemical action takes place that changes the phosphorus into a form plants cannot use.

90-Second Milking!

In this low-cost milking parlor, the world's first to be made sectionally of Masonite Tempered Presdwood, cows are milked at an average of one every 90 seconds. Located on the William Schaefer farm near Conroy, Ia., the milking parlor is the "last word" in scientific construction. It was erected by five men in two days over a concrete foundation. Additional parlors are being mass-produced in the famous Amana Colonies, Homestead, Iowa.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. Is it proper to use the typewriter for social correspondence?

A. Yes, this is quite proper. There was a time when the typewriter was considered suitable only for business correspondence, but that time has passed. Of course, only the single-sheet variety of stationery should be used when typing a letter, and be sure to sign your name by hand.

Q. If a girl has no parents and she has no means of giving a party to announce her engagement, how can she make her announcement?

A. The best way to do this is through the society-news page of her local newspaper.

Q. When passing your plate at the dinner table for a second helping of some dish, what should you do with your silverware?

A. Always leave this on the plate.

Q. What are the duties of the maid-of-honor while the marriage ceremony is taking place?

A. She stands nearest the bride, takes her bouquet or prayer book while the ring is being put on, returning them at the proper time, and arranges the bride's train when she turns from the altar to proceed up the aisle after the ceremony.

Q. Is it the man's or the woman's place to make the move to stop for cnoversation when they meet each other on the street?

A. The man's.

Q. Should the water glasses be filled before the guests are summoned to the table for luncheon?

A. Yes, the glasses are filled, and the butter is placed on the plates.

Q. Should the recipient of gifts at a birthday party open those gifts immediately, or wait until after the party?

A. Under no circumstances should the gifts be opened later. They should be opened immediately upon receipt, and each donor thanked sincerely. It would be an act of bad taste and thoughtlessness not to allow your friends to witness the opening of their gifts.

Q. Who takes charge of the wedding fee for the clergyman?

A. The bridegroom places this in an envelope and gives it to his best man, who hands it to the clergyman after the ceremony.

Q. Is it all right to pick up fried chicken at the dinner table with the fingers?

A. This is all right at a picnic, but at the dinner table the knife and fork are always used.

Q. I have heard that wearing a tuxedo is not proper on Sunday evenings. Is this correct?

A. White tie and tails are very rarely worn on Sundays — but tuxedos are often worn, and quite properly.

HOME OWNERS' QUESTION BOX

Q—How can cracks be caulked to keep the caulking material from falling out after it hardens?

A—Use the prepared caulking compound made for that purpose. It never hardens completely but stays plastic enough to move with the wood or other surrounding material as it expands and contracts. Caulking compound can be applied with a putty knife or a caulking gun. It can be painted.

Q—What are the new pastel roofing colors, and are pastel shingles suitable for all kinds of houses.

A—Pastel shingles are new members of an already wide and accepted family of roof colors. They are soft, neutral blends that are slightly grayed. Red, green, and blue are popular. Aside from the color, pastel asphalt shingles are not different from others and can be used anywhere that other shingles can. Personal preference should decide.

Q—What causes fireplaces to smoke?

A—Poor construction is one reason, of course. Another reason is that the flue is clogged, perhaps because the throat damper is closed. Like any other chimney, the chimney to a fireplace should be kept clean.

Q—Can lacquer be applied on top of varnish?

A—No. The lacquer will act as a varnish remover and the finish of the wood will be smeared. Before lacquer is used, the old finish must be taken off completely.

Lessons In .... English

by W. L. GORDON

Words Often Misused

The words "till" and "until" are interchangeable. "Until" is more commonly preferred at the beginning of a sentence. Notice that "till" is a word in its own right, and should not be spelled 'til.

Do not say, "I am sick to my stomach." Primarily, "to" means direction toward, and one is not sick "in the direction of" one's stomach. Say, "I am sick at my stomach," or "I am nauseated."

Do not say, "He came out from the house." Say, "out of the house."

Do not say, "She pled with her husband." Say, "She pleaded."

Remember that "suspect" is the verb, and "suspicion" the noun. Do not say, "I suspicioned that his claims were false." Say, "I "suspected that his claims were false."

Do not say, "He is some better today," or, "They have changed the arrangement some." Say, "He is somewhat better today," and, "They have changed the arrangement somewhat.

Words Often Mispronounced

Frequent (adjective and verb.) Accent adjective on first syllable. Accent verb on second syllable.

Gyve (a shackle). Pronounce as though spelled jive.

Biography. Pronounce the i as in bite, not as in bit.

Route. Pronounce as though spelled root.

Troche (a medicinal tablet or lozenge). Pronounce tro-ke, o as in no, e as in key, accent first syllable.

Coquetry. Pronounce ko-ke-tri, o as in cone, e as in bet, i as in it, accent first syllable.

Words Often Misspelled

Insure is preferred to ensure. Immobile; two ms. Verbatim; tim, not tum. Staccato; observe the two c's. Paraffin; one r and two f's. Ascetic (one who practices self-denial); acetic (acid).

Word Study

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

Irrevocable; incapable of being revoked; unalterable. "This is an irrevocable law."

Infatuate: to inspire with a foolish and extravagant passion. "Her many charms infatuated him."

Pervasive; spreading through every part; permeating. "Her charm was pervasive."

Loquacious; given to talking; garrulous. "Anne is loquacious and very tiresome."

Imploration; earnest supplication. "They raised their arms in imploration."

Documentary; contained or certified in writing "They produced documentary evidence."

At Orchestra Hall

The Chicago symphony orchestra's 62nd season opens at Orchestra Hall Thursday evening, October 2, with Rafael Kubelik, musical director and conductor, presenting works of Handel, Beethoven, and Dvorak.

This is Kubelik's third year on the Orchestra Hall podium. He will be assisted again by George Schick, associate conductor.

The season will also bring three noted guest conductors who will take the baton during Kubelik's mid-season vacation — Bruno Walter, Otto Klemperer, and Guido Cantelli. Many distinguished soloists will be heard during the season.

The works selected by Kubelik for the opening concerts Thursday evening and Friday afternoon are Handel's Concerto Grosso, No. 6; the Beethoven Fourth Symphony; and the Dvorak Fourth Symphony.

The orchestra will present two series of young people's concerts —six identical concerts in each series—at Orchestra Hall. The opening concerts are October 6 and 7, at 3 p. m.

Original Political Dinner Pail No Longer Full, But Is On Exhibit At History Museum

With interest mounting in the 1952 presidential campaigns, the Chicago historical society has opened an extensive exhibit of historic materials from the campaigns of 1828 through 1896. The exhibit will continue through January 4, 1953.

Entitled "Politics, U.S.A." the timely exhibit includes hundreds of rare and valuable items from the campaigns of Andrew Jackson through the first campaign of William McKinley. Political conventions and presidential campaigns began in 1828 when Andrew Jackson and Martin Van Buren were elected president and vice-president on the Democratic Republican ticket.

Badges, buttons, ballots and banners, as well as cartoons, broadsides and other campaign emblems show both the similarity and the difference between campaigns of the past and the present.

AMONG VALUABLE campaign items in the exhibit is the rare banner of Abraham Lincoln and Hannibal Hamlin used in the 1860 campaign. A large painting of Lincoln as a "rail-splitter," used in political rallies in Indiana during Lincoln's first campaign, dominates one wall of the exhibit room. Other items of the 1860 campaign include a torchlight carried by the "Wide-Awakes," a group of young voters for Lincoln.

From the campaign of 1840 there is a campaign flag on silk in behalf of William Henry Harrison ("Tippecanoe") and John Tyler.

The 1892 campaign materials include a large and colorful lithograph entitled "The Lost Bet" showing pictures of the winning candidates Grover Cleveland and Adlai E. Stevenson. There also is a souvenir paper napkin of the campaign.

A MINIATURE dinner pail, which was the campaign emblem ("The Full Dinner Pail") of William McKinley is among the 1896 materials.

The Chicago Historical Society is open to the public weekdays from 9:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. and on Sundays from 12:30 p. m. to 5:30 p. m. All visiting days except Sunday are free to adults. Children are always admitted free.

North Western Taxes Pass $2,400,000

More than $2,400,000 in 1951 taxes on its operating and other properties in twenty-four Illinois counties will be paid by the Chicago and North Western railway this year, according to R. L. Williams, president of the railway company.

Total taxes are $2,427,376.29—.29 of which $1,347,182.88, or more than half, constitute the various school taxes.

Clean Chimney Before Time To Build Fire

Clean out your chimney while the weather's warm, advises the national fire protection association.

A chimney should be cleaned every year, the NFPA says. If work is done during the warm months, it won't be necessary to shut off the heat later for an emergency job.

Dirty chimneys are dangerous because they can shoot sparks out on rooftops. To lessen the danger, the NFPA recommends that fire-resistant roofing such as asphalt shingles always be used.

Fire-resistant roofing is considered necessary even when a chimney is in perfect condition. Sparks from other sources — other chimneys and all kinds of outdoor fires—are a constant hazard. Windblown sparks can be carried hundreds of yards and still be burning when they land.

Annual Accident Cost 22 Millions

If you spent $1,000,000 a day, it would take you almost 22 years to spend as much as accidents cost the United States in one year.

The national safety council says accidents cost the nation $7,900,000,000 last year — or about $21,650,000 a day!

$2,900,000,000 in wages lost by disabled persons, lower wages due to permanent partial disability, and the present value of anticipated future earnings of those killed or permanently incapacitated.

$1,400,000,000 property damage in motor-vehicle accidents.

$1,300,000,000 in property destroyed or production lost in occupational accidents.

$1,000,000,000 for administrative and claim settlement costs of insurance. This does not include claims paid.

$731,000,000 in property destroyed by fire.

$550,000,000 for medical fees and hospital expense.

Like That Tooth

In Wichita, Kan., six-year-old Leonard Niedens yanked out one of his baby teeth, hid it in his ear, told the specialist who removed it: "I put it there to save it. I liked that tooth."
